From Your President Peggy Arms, President

Spring! Green! Sun!
I am wishing you the luck of the Irish!

Latest news! Beginning with our June (Community Sew) guild meeting, we will be meeting at the Center for Spiritual Living (14 Hillary Lane). More details as the date nears. (see photos in this newsletter)

Calling all quilters!

We (Rochelle Livingston and I) need your help with decorations for the quilt show in November (you've got plenty of time, but begin NOW!). We would like members to make/loan stuffed pumpkins and/or quilted items using leaves (wall hangings, placemats, swags, table runners, microwave bowls, potholders). We are going to 'deck the halls' with leaves and pumpkins, plus we were thinking of having quilted items for sale hanging on the walls around the food court! Please share patterns with us so we can share them with others. Also, by doing 'show and tell' with what you make, others will be inspired! AND, if any of you have your black crows from last show, we would like to borrow them as well. THANK YOU for your support!

Scoop from the Coop:

With the rainy weather the flock has been spending more time near the house. They have me trained to give them treats whenever they approach.

As the days grow longer the hens are beginning to give us more than one or two eggs a day...once again earning their keep!

They are now coming and pecking on the patio door begging for walnuts!

When I go to the mailbox or the yard to garden (weeding and pruning season is here!), I have to be careful to close the garage door or they are happy to enter!

March Guest Speaker: Scarlett Rose

Celtic Quilt Journey

Scarlett teaches for quilt guilds, shops and conferences throughout the United States and has taught twice in Japan, in Nagoya in 2002 and Osaka at the International Quilt Week 2006. While specializing in Celtic designs for appliqué, hand embroidery, sashiko and crayoning, Scarlett also designs scrap quilts, friendship quilts and foundation pieced quilts that are modern innovations on classic patchwork patterns and ancient symbols.

Vice President

Laura Yanez

Happy Almost Spring ASQG. We are looking forward to a presentation by Scarlett Rose at the March monthly meeting. There will not be a workshop due to the price ($700).

Many presenters have raised their workshop prices to a level that our budget cannot afford. Please let me know if you would be able to host a workshop for the guild and the date you are available.

As we move closer to the Quilt Show, I will be adding information to the website to help with planning and scheduling. Please send over your requests for website additions.

Workshops

Teresa Yocum, Workshop Chair

Please join us and learn a new skill or improve your technique.

March 7: No workshop

April 4: 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. $50

Nancy Duncan Introduction to English Paper Piecing, Honeyrun Classroom

Quilt Show 2024

Judy Riley, 2024 Quilt Show Coordinator

One Quilt from each ASQG member for the Quilt show!

Ladies, I am so thrilled to announce that every committee of the quilt show has a chairperson. Thank you so much for engaging with our 2024 show!

Annie's Attic – Kristy Thomas is taking the lead. See her article below, giving you all the details.

Key Dates for our quilt show cycle:

- July - Quilt Registration begins.
- Aug. guild meeting – quilt show committee volunteer sign-ups
- Aug. – Distribute Quilt Show Posters to quilt shops
- Sept. guild meeting – quilt registration closes
- Sept. guild meeting – quilt show committee volunteer sign-ups
- Oct. guild meeting. – quilt show committee volunteer sign-ups
- Oct. – Distribute yard signs and banner, small posters to other locations
- Oct. 29th – quilt show setup activities begin at Ed. Bldg.
- Oct. 31st – Quilts Judged at Cathy's
- Nov. 1st – quilt show setup day. Members deliver their quilts to the fairgrounds ED. Bldg.
- Nov. 2-3 – ASQG 2024 quilt show

Vendors – we invited seventeen vendors to our show. Four have already paid. Kalimba Baskets is one of them. Six have given a verbal yes. One has declined. And six are maybe.

The first quilt show meeting was on January 31st. We will continue to meet every other month until Aug. when we switch to monthly meetings.

At the 2022 Quilt Show

And remember, if we are not having fun, we are not doing it right!

Annie's Attic

Kristy Thomas, Annie's Attic

Annie's Attic is open for business beginning March 1st. Now is a good time to downsize your sewing supplies. Looking for fabric, "lots of fabric!" Panels, UFO's, (include patterns), zippers, buttons, thread, etc.

Please no hardcover books, sewing machines, ironing boards, or magazines.

If you have questions or need a pick up call Kristy Thomas 530-774-7618 you can also bring your items to guild.

Let's all get involved in our 2024 quilt show and have lots of fun!

ASQG General Meeting Minutes • Thursday, February 1, 2024

Missie Carpenter, Recording Secretary

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Peggy Arms at 7:01 p.m. There were 63 members attending, 2 new members joined.

Minutes of the January meeting were approved. M: Molly Fuller, 2nd: Chris Gullick.

Announcements:

The Ord Bend Volunteer Firemen's quilt raffle tickets are available at the back table next to the raffle quilt display. The annual pancake breakfast is this Sunday.

Through our social media, a woman whose mother passed, wished to inform us of an estate sale of her sewing items. There are notices of the sale available; the estate sale is being held Feb 9 -10.

Old Business:

We have a possible new meeting spot, near Burnap. Details will be posted in the newsletter.

It is time to name a Nominating Committee for a slate of new officers for the upcoming year. Nominating forms are available at the check in desk and will be in the newsletter. There are possible candidates for president and treasurer; the other offices need to be filled. Think of possible candidates or if you would like to serve.

New Business:

July 4 is the 1st Thursday in July, our usual meeting day. The members, by show of hands, voted to cancel our July meeting.

Group membership is being considered. The Board will discuss and determine if the matter is to be pursued.

Quilt Show/Judy Riley reported. Their 1st meeting was held Jan. 31. It is 10 months until our quilt show. She hopes that every member will enter at least 1 quilt. There are still a few open chairs that need filling. Opportunity Quilt booking (yet to be filled) is booked for Wildflower Festival in April, and the Durham in the Park festivities in May. The Boutique (Teresa Yocum) will be going as well. Other openings are: Annie's Attic, Decorations, Food Court, Corporate Donations (Carol Golden spoke about the duties/fun in doing it), Program ads. We have 2 poster designs, designed by Suzanne Steel and her sister-in-law. Key dates: July 1 quilt registrations begin and closes by the September meeting. Vendors were discussed.

Community Service/Kathy

Thomas spoke. There are quilts available for quilting. There are kits available also for pick up. She did a breakdown of how the grant money we received was spent. Kathy announced she is stepping down from her position as CS chair and we need a replacement.

Library/Jean Ping named the books available for the drawings.

Workshops/Teresa Yocum announced the upcoming workshops: March workshop is canceled, Nancy Duncan in April.

Newsletter Block/Frances

Perata, also Placemat kits available.

Appliqué Group/Beth Carlson: the "mini OQ" which goes to the person who sells the most tickets, is almost done; should be available for display by next month.

BOM/Judy Riley, Carol Golden say sales are good, a few blocks remain.

VP Laura Yanez introduced our speaker, Kim Brownell, who spoke on the topic of quilt challenges.

DRAWINGS

Newsletter Block: Missie Carpenter, Peggy Arms

BOM: Phoebe Winter

Library: Teresa Yocum, Stella Nelson

Announcement: Katie Vaclavik has volunteered to chair the corporate donations for our prize baskets.

ASQG Block of the Month

Carol Golden, Block of the Month

Judy and I enjoyed doing the BOM this year. Now it is time for someone else to take it forward.

It is incredibly fun and a terrific way to play with different fabrics. Doing it with a partner is good because you get two different views on fabric choices as well as pattern selections!

The process: you agree on a simple pattern. Then you decide what fabrics would make it attractive. The co-chairs determine the fabric amount required to make one block. Multiply that by the number of blocks you wish to offer the members. We did anywhere from 30 to 42. Honey Run Quilt Shop gives us a generous discount so purchasing your fabric there is an option.

After you choose the fabrics and pattern, cut it up into the pieces needed for each block. Package the pieces for each block in a plastic bag along with clear written directions on assembling the block. Lastly, make a test block to display at guild.

At the guild meeting BOM is a two-stage process. One stage is selling the new blocks at $2.00 each. The second stage is receiving the completed blocks purchased the prior month. When the member turns in their completed block(s), they put their name on a raffle ticket and place the ticket in the hat. They fill out one ticket for each block they made. At the end of the guild meeting the BOM drawing occurs, and the winner takes all the blocks turned in.

The BOM is a self-funding program. The money you make selling blocks pays for the material you buy for the next month. The incoming BOM team receives seed money at the start of the new year.

Interested? Contact either Judy Riley or Carol Golden or Peggy Arms to sign up for next year which starts in September!

Nominating Form for ASQG Elected Board Members

It is a new calendar year and time to think about filling the slate of ASQG elected officers for the year 2024-2025. Please consider participating in the operations of your guild; you will be glad you did. Or maybe you know a member you would like to nominate who you think would be good at filling one of the offices. Any member nominated will be contacted by the Nominating Committee to confirm their willingness to run. All positions have the responsibility to attend Board meetings (2nd Thursday of the month) when possible. Descriptions and responsibilities of the offices are on the reverse side of this form.

Member Name _____

Office (for which you would like to run or nominate someone)

Return this form to Peggy Arms by email at peggyarms123@gmail.com or by USPS to Peggy Arms, 5609 Anita Rd., Chico, 95973 by the June General ASQG meeting. The form can also be turned in at any meeting including the June meeting. Floor nominations will also be taken at the June general meeting.

The slate of officers recommended by the Nominating Committee as well as any additional candidates will be published in the July newsletter. Voting will take place at the August general meeting of ASQG and the new slate announced. Transfer of officers will take place at the August Board Meeting.
