

The Annual West Houston Food Truck Festival is Back!

BY NATALIE LERNER

Grab your family and join the fun on Sunday, April 24th from 12-4pm. This event marks the 9th year since the festival's inception by the Temple Sinai Brotherhood, but the first since 2019.

"The festival is designed as a family friendly event with an emphasis on activities for children," said Michael Burg, Chairman of the festival. "Adults will also enjoy themselves with the variety of food trucks, wine and beer available for purchase, and plenty of seating. As always, all net proceeds benefit Houston area organizations."

Beneficiaries include the Houston Food Bank, Westside Coalition for the Homeless, scholarships for the kids at the temple, and other charitable purposes. The lineup of food vendors includes The Waffle Bus, The Pit King BBQ, D'Lish Curbside, SweetRide!, Nom Mi Street, The Doughcone, It's A Wrap, Sandy's Sweet Treats, and more! Music will be provided by Randy Tazmayne Mobile DJ Service, and there will be children's activities, a balloon artist, a face painter and a petting zoo. Plus, did we mention two big bounce houses?

Admission is only $10.00 per person, plus your food and beverage purchases. Children 12 and under are free. Come on out and support while eating some delicious food and listening to some rockin' music!

The West Houston Food Truck Festival is being held at Temple Sinai, located at 13875 Brimhurst Drive. Call 281-496-5950 for more information.
