

WEST BLOOMFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Tues., May 7th – 7 pm

“ABOUT ASPARAGUS”

Asparagus has flourished in the unique soil of the Bloomfields for centuries and became a local claim to fame in the heyday of produce shipping on the NY Central Railroad. Learn about asparagus history and harvesting, meet descendants of early growers, and hear from a current farmer.

At the Society - 8966 Rt. 5 & 20

Accessible & open to all at no charge

Doors open at 6:30 to browse our exhibits.
