See something – say something (aka Neighborhood Watch)

By the time you read this, the busy season here at ALG&CC will be winding down although it is safe to say that we are getting more and more full-time residents and part-time residents that are arriving earlier and/or staying longer.

To that end, ALPOA would like to remind everyone that this is OUR community. If you see something that isn't right - say something! To somebody!

- Breaking the law (*incl. speeding)/suspicious activity – Lincoln County Sheriff @ 575-648-2341 or #911 in an emergency
 - Short term rental problems/zoning issues – Alto Lakes Special Zoning District <https://www.nmalszd.com/forms.html>
 - Firewise/Construction/miscellaneous – ALG&CC Architectural Control Commission – www.altolakesgolf.com -> Club.gov -> Commissions -> ACC-Architectural Control Commission -> scroll down to “online complaint form”
- Obviously, if it is an emergency – dial 911 however, if you are not sure where to go with any other problem.....ASK! Someone will be happy to help!

Please note that there is no organization that can restrict/control traffic except the Sheriff's office.*

August Recap

ALPOA would encourage you to ALWAYS do your part to keep our neighborhoods clean however, our organized neighborhood clean-up was a success with beautiful weather to facilitate the trash pick-up of our 38 volunteers who enjoyed a free lunch from our sponsor – Century 21 Real Estate.

As I write this, the “Burgers, Brats and Bingo Scholarship Fundraiser” currently has 110+ reservations and is guaranteed to be another smashing success and loads of fun!
