About the Florida Wind Band

The Florida Wind Band is Tampa's premier wind band, bringing entertaining and inspiring performances of high-quality music to our vibrant and engaging community. The ensemble is comprised of professional musicians which include K-12 teachers, college professors, and full-time performers who have a deep love for the eclectic repertoire ranging from Bach to contemporary composers. The band is led by USF's Director of Bands, Matthew McCutchen, who is dedicated to programming music that will make audiences laugh, cry, dance, and wonder.

Our ensemble is comprised of many of the finest wind and percussion musicians in the Tampa Bay Area. All of our members have music degrees, and the vast majority of our musicians work as full time musicians either teaching in the area's public and private schools and universities, or as freelance performers throughout Florida. The musicians dedicate their time and accomplished talents to our organization for their love of wind band repertoire, live performances, and the camaraderie that comes along with making music at the highest level for our community.

Since its debut in 2008, the Florida Wind Band has entertained thousands of people, including prestigious performances for the American Bandmaster's Association, the College Band Directors National Association, and the Florida Music Educators Association Convention. We look forward to many more years of inspired music-making and hope you will join us in these endeavors.

The Florida Wind Band invites you to our first masterworks concert of the season, "How Sweet it Is," joined by the debut of our fall educational youth program, Autumn Winds. While we take our music-making very seriously, we do enjoy a good play on words. The repertoire includes compositional confections and the sweet sounds of the Florida Wind Band's principal horn, Brandon McDannald.

Bay Area Youth Winds

The Florida Wind Band is the parent organization for Bay Area Youth (BAY) Winds. BAY Winds allows students the opportunity to explore exciting band pieces for intermediate and advanced students in middle school and high school. These spring ensembles will focus on ensemble playing, pitch matching, and music opportunities to develop independent student musicianship and leadership.
