SPEAK UP with MLK VOICE 4 YOUTH

HYBRID WRITING WORKSHOP - October 5, 2021

4 PM @ The Teen Warehouse, 1121 Thatcher Street, Wilmington

High school students interested in learning more about MLK VOICE 4 YOUTH and/or would like help getting started may attend, at no charge, a hybrid writing workshop offered by David Teague, Associate Professor and Dha’Zhea Freeman, 2019 MLK VOICE 4 YOUTH 3rd Prize Winner, both from the University of Delaware. This writing workshop is an opportunity to hone your creativity and writing skills to convey your message of social change through peace. The workshop is a collaboration between MLK VOICE 4 YOUTH and The Teen Warehouse.

ABOUT MLK VOICE 4 YOUTH

Presented by the YWCA Delaware and Christ Church Christiana Hundred, MLK VOICE 4 YOUTH is a statewide, spoken word contest for high school students, grades 9 - 12. The contest challenges students to reflect and creatively share how Dr. King’s legacy guides their response to today’s challenges. In 2022, MLK VOICE 4 YOUTH will celebrate its 7th year encouraging youth to SPEAK UP for social change through respect, understanding, and compassion.
