A LAST THOUGHT

For the last 10 minutes, we have reflected on the lives and friends of Charlie and Margie. Though they have both left us physically, they will never be forgotten.

The picture to the right shows how much they believed and trusted in God, so we must pick up from here and carry the torch.

Together Again

Margie and Charlie had 67 years of happiness. Though Margie left us 7 years earlier, with Charlie's recent passing, they are together again, ready to start new eternal memories and will be there for us, once again, when we pass, as they were here for us, when we were all together on earth.

We love you mom and dad. Thank you for what you have done for us throughout our whole lives. We know you are together again enjoying each others love, as you have for the last 70+ years. This makes it a tad bit easier to carry on, knowing you are both happy and together again.

God Bless
