DESCRIPTION:

April 30: Let's Talk: Parent-Provider Communication

Parents, child care providers, and teachers both play crucial roles in the development of children. Parents and providers always want the best for young children, but sometimes their perspectives are different and they may have trouble communicating effectively. Learning how to communicate effectively can help children thrive by providing consistency as well as relationships that are supportive. This workshop will help participants learn strategies to effectively communicate and explore ways to problem solve communication challenges.

Extension Extras Parenting Hour is a free online series of parenting workshops that provides guidance for parents of young children as they navigate the joys, challenges and concerns of parenting. Participants will receive a certificate of attendance.
