

Lochinvar

Words from "Marmion" by Sir Walter Scott

Music © 2021 Nigel Don

With a gentle flow (♩ = 40)

S f v. 1 mf
 Have ye e'er heard of ga-llant like young Loch-in - var? O

A f mf
 Have ye e'er heard of ga-llant like young Loch-in - var? O

T f mf
 Have ye e'er heard, have ye e'er heard of ga-llant like young Loch-in - var? O

B f mf
 Have ye e'er heard, have ye e'er heard of ga-llant like young Loch-in - var? O

for rehearsal only

nigeldon.com

5

S.
 young Loch in-var is come out of the west, through all the wide Bor der his steed was the best; and

A.
 young Loch in-var is come out of the west, through all the wide Bor der his steed was the best; and

T.
 young Loch in-var is come out of the west, through all the wide Bor der his steed was the best; and

B.
 young Loch in-var is come out of the west, through all the wide Bor der his steed was the best; and