

O Caledonia!

Words from the "The Lay of the Last Minstrel" by Sir Walter Scott

Music © 2021 Nigel Don

mf Moderato (♩ = 38)

S Breathes there the man with soul so dead, who ne-ver to him-self hath said, this is my own, my

A
mf
Breathes there the man with soul so dead, who ne-ver to him-self hath said, this is my own, my

T mf
Breathes there the man with soul so dead, who ne-ver to him-self hath said, this is my own, my

B mf
Breathes there the man with soul so dead, who ne-ver to him-self hath said, this is my own, my

for rehearsal only

nigeldon.com

6

S. na - tive land! Whose heart hath ne'er with - in him burned, as home his foot-steps he hath turned,

A. na - tive land! Whose heart hath ne'er with - in him burned, as home his foot-steps he hath turned,

T. na - tive land! Whose heart hath ne'er with - in him burned, as home his foot-steps he hath turned,

B. na - tive land! Whose heart hath ne'er with - in him burned, as home his foot-steps he hath turned,