(//// //) D/// D///

Verse:

D/// //// //// //Em/ Bm/// //// //// //A/

No painted trains on the underground
No kids with spray cans jumping over fences

D/// //// //// //Em/ Bm/// //// //// //Bm A

All the suits and the ties all march in a straight line
Deafening the sound of the helpless

G/// //Bm A x2 G/// ///F#m Em/// (///)

It's a city of a thousand heartbeats
No room for another soul
The same building on a different street
But nobody knows

D/// //// //// //// G/// //// Em/// //// x2

Tear it down 'til it's gone
All you ever, all you ever wanted
Kill the lights while they're on
Is it all you ever, all you ever wanted?

Verse:

D/// //// //// //Em/ Bm/// //// //// //A/

Stand in a line for the hole in the wall
'Cause people still need cash to buy their freedom

D/// //// //// //Em/ Bm/// //// //// //Bm A

Moving forward, walking back
Everyone is falling, but we don't see them

Pre-chorus:

G/// //Bm A x2 G/// ///F#m Em/// (///)

A day away from a stroke of bad luck
Money's slipping right through the cracks
It's a shame how we don't know
What we really have

Chorus:

D/// //// //// //// G/// //// Em/// //// x2

Mine's a city with a thousand heartbeats
But we're just tryna keep a dream alive
New sign on an old street
I don't recognize
