REQUIRED LANGUAGE FOR DEVIATIONS FOR CHILD SUPPORT PURPOSES

The Court finds that the amount of child support payable by the obligor in this case, pursuant to the Ohio child support computation, is $ _____ per month, per child for __ child(ren), for a monthly total of $ _____ for current child support and $ _____ per month, per child, for _____ child(ren) for a monthly total of $ _____ for cash medical support for a total monthly support of $ _____, plus processing fee.

The Court, after considering the facts and criteria set forth under R.C. _____ _____ [insert R.C. 3119.23, R.C. 3119.231, OR R.C.3119.24], finds that the amount of child support calculated pursuant to the child support schedule of R.C. 3119.021, would be unjust of inappropriate and not in the best interest of the child(ren).

The Court finds that a deviation of [child support and/or cash medical support] is warranted in this case pursuant to [R.C. 3119.23, 3119.231, 3119.24] for the following reasons: _____.

The parties agree and represent to the Court that the aforementioned deviation factor(s) and/or criteria have a total monetary value of [insert value of deviation for either current child support and/or cash medical support.] $_____ per month for current support, and/or $ _____ per month for cash medical support, which amount the parties request be adopted by the Court for purposes of computing a deviation from computation child support and cash medical support.

Based upon the agreement and representation of the parties, the Court finds that a deviation from the child support computation is warranted, as set forth above.
