Page 34 Page 36 I not entitled to it. l homeowner in Dallas, and you call 911. 2 THE COURT: Overrule the objection. 2 Q. Well, I tell you what, let's use this case. You 3 Q. BY MR. GOELLER: Sir, you've handed me two pieces of 3 arrive at Gibbons. Is there some type of notation or a 4 paper -- two documents entitled "Miscellaneous Incident 4 computer or a dispatcher or anybody saying, Officer Junger is 5 Report." Time call received, what does that mean with DPD? at 18333 Gibbons? A. Basically time call - let's me explain, normally if A. Yes, sir. 7 you call 911 -Q. What's that called on these sheets; time what? Q. Uh-huh. 8 A. Well, that's the time that I covered the other A. - that would be the time call - the call was 9 officer. 10 received. The time the call was dispatched would be the time 10 Q. Okay. Does somebody have a notation of that? 11 I received call. The time arrived would be the time that I 11 A. I assume they do. I wouldn't know who would. 12 Q. Okay. So, when you leave -- when you left the 12 actually arrived at the call. 13 Gibbons Drive address to go over to Old Bent Tree, would If you'll notice all those are the same. That's 14 because I had the dispatcher make me up that number -14 somebody have a record and notation of that? 15 basically that report number. If you look at - I think it's A. The only record, I believe, would be on tape because 15 16 the top left or top right, you'll see the report number. It 16 I did, on tape, inform the dispatcher that I was going to Old 17 ends with a "K." As a matter of fact bear with me. 17 Bent Tree. 18 O. A "J". 18 Q. And then once you get to Old Bent Tree, would you 19 19 tell somebody you're there? A. I'm sorry, a J, yes, sir. 20 20 A. Yes, sir, over the air. Q. What does that mean? 21 O. Over the air? 21 A. That's the report number. That's the number that I 22 prepared, that Miscellaneous Incident Report. We call them 22 A. Over the police radio. I'm sorry. 23 MIR for short. Basically in order for me to do a report, I 23 Q. Okay. Yeah, I got you. 24 have to have a report number generated. Every time you call 24 And then when this -- normally time called cleared, 25 911, a number is generated. If you'll see that number, it 25 would that be, in this case, the time you left the apartment Page 37 Page 35 1 started with a 1. Every time you call, it will go 1, 2, 3 --1 that you were in, or the time you leave Gibbons? A. That would be time that - in that case that would 2 the service number will be 1J, 2J. At that certain date we were up to that many calls for service. 3 normally be the time that I leave Old Bent Tree. QC I see 0864384-J. O. Okay. 4 A. Right. 5 A. But once again, this call was not generated by a 911 5 6 call from a citizen. This call was generated from myself 6 Q. Is that the number you're referring to? 7 inside of our squad car. That's why all of those numbers are 7 8 Q. And when was this report actually generated? 8 the same. Q. Did you give them the time 20:37? 9 A. It was generated November 4th at the time - it 10 says time call received. 10 A. The minute they type it into the computer -O. That's what comes up? Q. Okay. And time call received is -- it says 20:37. 11 H 12 A. Yes, sir. 12 8:37? 13 Q. Did you make a statement on November 4th around 13 A. Yes, sir. 14 20:37 that, "Manager gave responding officer a key to listed Q. And that's the time that, what? 14 15 location, subject's apartment. Subject apartment -- subject, 15 A. That I generated that report number, that I could 16 nor girlfriend, were at listed location. No signs of an 16 prepare that report. 17 offense"? 17 Q. Time call Code 6; what's that mean? A. Yes, sir. 18 A. Technically, sir, that's supposed to be the time 19 that I arrived at the call. But, once again, I already had 19 Q. Okay. Is this the only report that you had 20 generated --20 arrived at the call. I asked the dispatcher to generate me A. Yes, sir. 21 that service number, so all those numbers are going to be the 21 22 Q. -- Officer Junger? 22 same. A. Stemming from this case, or -- in my 11 years, no, 23 23 Q. I guess I'm -- I'm confused. How could they be the 24 I've generated several reports. But from this case -24 same? Q. No. I don't want II years worth of reports. 25 25 A. Okay. I apologize. For example, let's say you're a

We're still dealing with the issue of an attack on the validity on the arrest of the accused, and rather than litigate that issue which, quite candidly, would be difficult and we might well lose it anyway, because we recognize a part of that problem, we believe the only thing that's the result of that arrest that could be fruit of that arrest is an oral statement made by the Defendant, which actually isn't in a culpatory nature, anyway. I think what we have here, Your Honor, is a search prior to a search. There is evidence that on November -- I

3 lost track of my days -- November 4th at approximately

4 sometime at eight in the evening, officers from the Dallas

5 Police Department, the testimony is, gained entry to Mr.

6 Cantu's apartment. They've testified that that was at the 7 request of Mrs. Sylvia Cantu. But in any event, we believe

I that initial entry was illegal.

At least -- well, two of the officers, Detective

10 Winn and Officer Junger, both testified that it was a small,

11 one-bedroom apartment. Officer Junger testified that he spent

12 five to ten minutes in that apartment doing what was called a 13 "safety check," in the terms of one officer, and "emergency 14 check" and "emergency search" in Officer Junger's words. I

15 asked both those officers that apartment would fit within the 16 confines of this courtroom. And there's testimony before this 17 Court that this courtroom is approximately 40 by 20 feet. One 18 officer said he wouldn't have a problem with being --

19 estimating the square footage of that apartment between 7 and 20 800 square feet.

21

I would submit to this court that 5 to 10 minutes in

22 that small apartment is not a courtesy check or a safety check

23 or a welfare check, Your Honor. There was a search. I

24 believe it's a reasonable deduction from the evidence that 25 there was a search that took place prior to this warrant.

Page 71

It's interesting in Detective Winn's affidavit. He's very specific. He's looking for a 380 caliber handgun, 380 ammunition, clothing containing human blood, spent 380

4 projectile lodged inside the interior wall of the apartment;

- projection rouges include the transfer of the service of the ser

5 Rolex watch "To Rico, with love, Carol; man's black leather

6 wallet containing 100 dollars cash and assorted papers and identifications of paragraph 2 in State's Exhibit 1.

Detective Winn, I counted at least 4 times said I had no probable cause. I had no facts to believe that these ) items were in that apartment. I wanted this search warrant to 1 get into that apartment to see if I could find some probable

12 cause. And, Your Honor, I don't -- I think it is so illogical

3 to say I had no suspects in mind. I had no probable cause and 14 hard facts to arrest Ivan Cantu for the murders of anybody. I

15 had no other suspects in mind, yet I want to get into an

6 apartment of Mr. Cantu to look for evidence. It just doesn't

7 make sense, Judge. You can't come in on one hand and say,

18 I've got no probable cause. I've got no facts. He didn't do

19 anything, but I sure want to get in his apartment and find 20 some stuff. This was an exploratory search. He had nothing.

If you look at this affidavit, Your Honor, there can be absolutely nothing in here that could lead a reasonable and 23 detached magistrate, even if he's 80 years old, to believe 24 that those items would be found in that apartment. The 25 officer himself told you. I listed those things in paragraph

1 number 2 because they were missing from the home. In my

2 training and experience as a homicide detective, there may be

3 clothes with blood spatter on them. He also told you it was 4 just as likely they were not.

5 I had no probable cause or facts to believe the weapon was located in his apartment. He specifically says a 7 spent 380 projectile lodged inside the interior wall of the 8 apartment. He also told you I had no probable cause, no facts

9 to believe I would find that in there. I had another officer

10 who told me he thought he may have seen a bullet hole, and the 11 court heard enough testimony on that to -- certainly no more

12 probable than not. And if the Court looks at those 13 photographs that were admitted, I think it's 5 and 6 or 3 and 14 4, the photographs of the bullet holes, the Court can look at 15 those and determine that it's no more probable that that is a

16 bullet hole than just some other type of hole caused by some 17 object into the wall of that apartment.

What we have in this affidavit for a search warrant

19 is an attempt by a homicide detective, who has nothing, who

20 has no suspects, who has no probable cause to make an arrest,

21 to get into the apartment of Mr. Cantu solely because in this 22 affidavit apparently he lives near there. There's a car in 23 the parking lot, and that's -- I can't find anything else in 24 this affidavit that would lead him to believe that he had 25 enough probable cause to get a search warrant. And again, I

1 know it's -- I keep going back to the same thing, but if he

2 has no other suspects and he has no probable cause to suspect

3 he killed anybody, how on earth could he get a search warrant

4 to search his apartment? It doesn't make any logical sense at 5 all.

6 I would cite to the Court the Court of Criminal

7 Appeals case -- I know the Court has heard of this -- the 8 Massey case, an affidavit in support of a search warrant must 9 allege substantial facts establishing probable cause to 10 believe the items in question would be found at the identified

11 place. If he said it once, he said it eight times, Judge. I

12 had no probable cause or facts to believe they were in the 13 apartment. I wanted to get in there to see if I could find 14 anything. They were reported missing at the Gibbons Drive and 15 in homicides these things might be found with the perpetrator.

So again, I'd object, Your Honor, under Article 9 of 17 the Texas Constitution, and specifically Article 38.23 of the 18 Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, which states "No evidence

19 obtained by an officer or other person in violation of any

20 provision of the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas,

21 or of the Constitution and laws of the United States shall be

22 admitted in evidence against the accused of a trial of any 23 criminal case."

24 I would still submit that the State has not rebutted

25 the fact that this evidentiary search warrant was signed by an

Page 74 1 authorized, legal officer of the United States -- I mean, of 2 the State of Texas and County of Dallas and City of Dallas. 3 I'd ask the Court to not allow that evidence in on that 4 alone. 5 So what do we have here, Judge? Three searches. 6 Search one -- and the Court is allowed to make reasonable 7 inferences and conclusions from the evidence it hears. I'm just in there looking for bodies or a person. How long, Officer Junger, were you in this 7 to 800 square foot 10 apartment before Mrs. Cantu came in? Five to ten minutes? Judge, first, I thought I was going to take up the 12 Court's time, if you would allow me to sit here for five 13 minutes, and I'd ask the Court to think about going through a 14 7 or 800 square foot apartment for five minutes. I might 15 drive the point home further, but I won't take the Court's 16 time, but we're talking a one bedroom, one living area, a 17 kitchenette and maybe a laundry room to find a body, a live 18 person, five to ten minutes. That's a search? That has got 19 to be a search; yet, in his statement he says no evidence of a 20 crime found. Doesn't put the bullet hole in his statement. 21 Seems like they're trying to piece this together and try to 22 justify how it went down. 23 Then now all of a sudden, you've got search two. 24 Well, funny it's coming after Officer Junger has been in there 25 ten minutes, and then another five to ten minutes while Page 75

1 Mrs. Cantu is in there.

2 And then we have the third search. The products of the second search that they seek are really coming from the first, and they're all tied and they're all illegal, Judge.

I think it's a reasonable deduction from the 5 6 evidence that Detective Winn knew what was in there perhaps. It's a reasonable deduction from the evidence that Junger and his partner searched that apartment and reported back to Detective Winn, then could simply list them out in this affidavit, and that's exactly what you have, Judge. You've got detective -- or excuse me -- Officer Junger telling you, 12 I'm not sure. I don't think I went back to the Gibbons Drive 13 after that. Now, that does seem odd, doesn't it, if he thinks he saw a bullet hole and is not going to go back and report that? I think I went to a 7-Eleven. 16 But the next morning a sergeant is calling me, and he's asking me what I was doing in there in the first place. 18 I find that bizarre, Your Honor. I think Junger said he had 11 -- 7 or 11 years on the force. So you've got a homicide detective asking him -- or sergeant. I can't remember whether it was a homicide detective. Sergeant asked him, what were you doing in there in the first place? They know they 23 got trouble. There's big trouble.

24 And then we get this affidavit, and I would submit 25 to the Court that how this Dallas magistrate signed this thing Page 76

1 is just a mystery to me. There's no probable cause. And

2 again, I know I'm repeating myself, Judge. But I ask the Court to recall how many times I asked him, you swore that there is a suspected place and premises where these items constituting evidence of a crime are. I said, oh, no, Judge.

That's boilerplate. We just fill in the blanks. The way our computer is set up, when you come to the colon, you type in 8 what you want.

9 Isn't it interesting that he testifies he had no 10 idea they were in there -- no probable cause or hard facts to 11 believe they were in there, but he'd like to get in there and 12 see if they're in there. And if you look at the return, lo

13 and behold; keys, clothing, bullets. Wasn't that odd, Judge.

14 Isn't that funny?

15 Based on that -- based on Detective Winn's testimony 16 alone, the Court should conclude that this is an illegal

17 search and seizure, and I'm asking the Court to exclude all

18 the fruits of that illegal search; the first search, the 19 second search and the third search. I think the second and 20 third search, I understand the logic and we don't want to rip

21 into structural integrity of this building. But I think the 22 second and the third search are really one and the same. I

23 think if the Court excluded the evidence on the second one,

24 logically we would be excluding the evidence under the third

25 one. But I'll rest at this point, Judge.

THE COURT: All right.

2 MS. FALCO: Your Honor, first of all, it's the 3 State's position that the defendant never proved up standing in this case. That's their initial burden. Their initial burden is to prove that they have standing to even complain

6 about the search of Amy Boettcher's apartment. All the evidence shows is that Amy Boettcher was the lessee. She was the only name on the lease. She is the one who was able to change the locks. She was the one that was able to control

10 who went in and out of the apartment. That's the evidence 11 that you heard.

1

12 You heard no evidence that the Defendant had any 13 expectation of privacy in that apartment, or any relation he

14 had to that apartment would be a reasonable -- that society

15 would observe as a reasonable expectation of privacy, just 16 being the boyfriend of Amy Boettcher, who was the lessee of 17 the apartment. I don't think they proved their standing to 18 complain, and I don't think that we should have to further prove that the search was warranted based on the fact they 20 never proved standing.

21 But just agreeing -- assuming that the standing was 22 not proved, we'll move on to the search warrants, whether or 23 not they were valid. First of all, you have the first search

24 warrant, and the first search warrant was based on a number of 25 facts that Detective Winn used to show probable cause. And Page 78 Page 80 1. first of all, when we're talking about probable cause for a Criminal Appeals have recognized that police, because of their 2 search warrant is there a fair probability that the items will sizable function to protect or preserve life, or prevent 3 be found at that location. It's not whether or not there's serious injury, may make a warrantless entry into a home when 4 sufficient evidence to arrest the Defendant. It's not they reasonably believe that a person within is in need of 5 probable cause for an arrest. It's just probable cause for a immediate aid." search, and there are a number of cases that set out the 6 And it also quotes Minzy versus Arizona. Clearly 7 standard. Massachusetts versus Upton; United States Supreme the police, as part of their function, if somebody is Court case, 466 U.S. 727. The standard on determining whether distressed, if there might be a possibility someone is in need 9 or not there's probable cause is looking at the totality of of their help, they can make that warrantless entry into the 10 the circumstances. And that's what you look at, at the 10 home. And in Herber versus State, which is the Court of 11 totality of the circumstances for determining probable cause Appeals, Fifth District for Dallas, the court applied or 12 for the issuance of a search warrant. extended the community caretaking function to a home saying 13 And in looking at that -- looking at the totality of 13 that the community caretaker function can take you into a 14 home. You can do a warrantless entry into a home if you 14 the circumstances, what Detective Winn had in front of him at 15 the time he executed that search warrant, first of all, he had reasonably believe that a person is within immediate -- within 16 the fact that the Defendant was related to the victim; that need of immediate aid. 16 17 they were cousins and he knew that. Secondly, he knew that 17 It goes on to say that, "Texas lower appellate 18 the -- there was no forced entry into that home, and he courts have little hesitation in embracing the community 18 19 testified that in his seven years of experience as a homicide caretaker function and characterize it as a body embodying the detective, when there's no forced entry into the home, all of 20 societal desire that police provide assistance to citizens in 21 need." the homicides he saw had been somebody that knew the victim. Thirdly, you have the Defendant's mother, Sylvia 22 Mrs. Cantu was in need that night. She was 23 Cantu, who's very worried about her son's absence. The 23 frantic. She couldn't find her son. She tried on numerous victim, his cousin, has been killed and she can't get ahold of 24 occasions to call him. They tried calling him and knocking on 25 her son, the Defendant. 25 his door at that time. Then went in purely for the sole Page 79 Page 81 Fourthly, you have the fact there's not just a car 1 reason to determine if he was dead or alive. The officer walked in, saw no bodies, and on his way out he saw the bullet 2 parked by the Defendant's apartment. It's the car of the 2 3 hole. victim. It's the Corvette that's missing from the crime 4 And there was nothing -- no evidence gained or scene, and it's parked outside the Defendant's apartment. seized as a result of that search, as Mr. Goeller called it. Fifthly, Detective Winn had heard the story that the That's not when they obtained any evidence. He didn't observe Defendant gave to Carlos Gonzalez putting him in the Corvette, 7 any evidence. He wasn't looking for any evidence. He stated saying why he had the Corvette, that he was in possession of at that time he didn't even know Mr. Cantu was a suspect. All the Corvette, and that the Corvette was parked outside of his he knew is he had a worried mother concerned about her son, apartment, which was a gated community. That gives him and the only reason he noticed a bullet hole is because it's knowledge of the material, or the matter at hand, and knowledge of missing items from the victim from the crime eye level by the front door, and he noticed it on the way out 12 the door. There were no items seized as a result of that scene's house. That adds to the probability that there would be more evidence of the crime found inside the Defendant's 13 entry. 14 Additionally you have, as well as them being 14 apartment. 15 related, you have the fact that they're business partners. You also have the bullet hole -- the bullet hole 15 You have the fact that this was a homicide. Detective Winn 16 inside the Defendant's apartment. And as far as that goes -as far as whether or not that was an illegal search, as 17 knew it was a homicide by a gunshot. He found 380 shotgun 18 shells. He knew there was a gun involved, and there was a gun Mr. Goeller claims, the officer went in there solely for the not found at the crime scene, and when he received the 19 reason of determining whether or not the Defendant was dead or information on Officer Junger's entry into the Defendant's 20 20 alive, solely as an emergency search, as he called it, and 21 home of the bullet hole, that bullet hole, associated with the only at the insistence of Mrs. Cantu. 21 22 The community caretaker function of the police was homicide regarding the gun, additionally adds to the probable 23 cause to go into the house; that there's a probability that 23 set out in Katy versus Dombrosky, United States Supreme Court, 24 there will be more evidence of the crime inside that 24 413, U.S. 433. And in that case and other cases that follow 25 that, it says, "Both the Supreme Court and the Court of 25 apartment.

1 If you look at the totality of the circumstances, 2 you look at all of those circumstances taken together, that's sufficient to show the officer had probable cause in entering 4 the home. Furthermore, case law regarding probable cause to 5 search; United States versus Fentreska, the court held, "The 5 scarcii, Omica States versus i entreska, inc court neid, The 6 term probable cause means less than evidence which was 7 justified condemnation." The court held that the affidavit in 8 this case, if read in the common sense way rather than

9 technically, showed ample facts to establish probable cause

10 and allow the issue of the warrant.

It's not a technical standard. It's not a standard 12 that you have to meet all these things. It's totality of the 13 circumstances looked at in a common sense evaluation.

14 Again, United States versus Woolery, the court says

15 in looking at probable cause for a search warrant, "In dealing 16 with probable cause, the court deals with probabilities.

17 These are not technical considerations, but rather factual and 18 practical ones of everyday life on which reasonable and 9 prudent persons, not legal technicians act. A showing of 20 probable cause requires far less evidence than that sufficient

r

21 to support a conviction."

When Mr. Goeller goes on about there's not facts to 23 show Mr. Cantu committed the offense, that's not what we're 24 talking about. We're talking about is there a probability 25 that evidence of the crime can be found in that apartment.

- 1 Based on all the evidence you have in front of you, the
- 2 totality of the evidence, there is definitely sufficient
- 3 evidence, based on that warrant, to get in the house.

4 Furthermore, with regard to the second search

5 warrant, the warrant used to retrieve the bullet out of the wall. Obviously, you heard that they were not able to get the 7 bullet out on the first warrant without causing structural

8 damage to the house; therefore, requiring a second search

9 warrant. And not only did they use all the totality of the y warrant. This not only old they use an the totally of the 10 circumstances they had from the initial search warrant, but 11 once they went in on the initial search, found evidence of the 12 crime. They went back on the second search to retrieve the 13 bullet.

14 And, furthermore, with regard to the second search

15 warrant, you also have the argument that it was consentual.

16 You heard Detective Winn say, by that point he had talked to 17 Amy Boettcher. She knew they were going back in the 18 apartment, and she coordinated her going back into that 19 apartment with them. She wanted them to be with her to go in 20 that apartment. She allowed them to go in the apartment

21 knowing they were going to conduct a search. So, therefore,

22 that second search was consentual.

23 And when you're looking at these search warrants,

24 there's to be deference given to the magistrate. There's 25 deference to be given the search warrants because that is the l purpose that an officer goes to say get a search warrant. A

2 magistrate has looked at it and agreed that there is probably

3 cause, and, therefore, there should be great deference given

4 to these probable cause search warrants and evidentiary search

5 warrants

8

11

6 And with regard to Mr. Goeller's argument as far as

7 that when they went on the emergency search to look to see

8 whether or not Mr. Cantu was in there, whether or not he was 9 dead or alive, Mr. Goeller makes the argument, well, they were

0 in there five or ten minutes. That's ridiculous. Obviously,

11 they were looking for evidence. The officer told you they 12 weren't in there looking for evidence. It doesn't matter how 13 long they were in there. They were just looking for a body.

14 They didn't find a body, and they didn't seize any evidence.

15 They didn't find any evidence, and nothing resulted from that 16 search, other than on his way out the door -- doesn't matter

17 how long he was in there, because even if he was in there for 18 two seconds, on his way out the door, that's when he sees the 19 bullet hole. Nothing else was obtained from that entry into 20 the home; therefore, there's nothing wrong with that entry.

21 There's nothing unlawful about that entry. There's nothing to 22 be suppressed from that entry, because regardless of the 23 amount of time, they were in there looking through that 24 apartment. He saw that bullet hole on his way out the door.

Based on all of the facts that you have in front of

1 you, first of all, they did not prove standing; therefore, we

2 should never even move on to the issue of probable cause in 3 the search warrant. They did not prove standing, assuming 4 even that they did, the search warrants are valid. They're 5 facially valid. They've been proven to be valid, and they've

6 not rebutted that presumption or validity, and I ask that you

7 deny the Motion to Suppress.

THE COURT: Do you have a final word?

9 MR. GOELLER: If I could ask leave of court,

10 Mr. High would like to complete it.

THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. HIGH: Thank you Judge.

13 Please the Court, if I could have a copy of the Katy

14 case. It's been since law school probably since I read it.

15 All right, Judge, I haven't had an opportunity to 16 read the cases to reply as thoroughly --

17 THE COURT: I've read all of them. They were 18 cited by both sides yesterday, so I've read them all.

19 MR. HIGH: From what I can tell, the Katy case

20 involves search of a vehicle, so it's somewhat

21 distinguishable. It's a murder case that the weapon was found 22 in the vehicle. I don't know that that really applies to what 23 we're talking about here in the apartment.

24 This case they're addressing here, Herber versus

25 Courts of Appeals of Texas. Fifth District cited at 2000 Texas

Page 86 Page 88 1 Appeals, Lexus 53.76 involves an apartment complex where a 1 There's no evidence, other evidence, that he observed anything 2 party is going on. Guess what We don't have any idea -- we don't even hear any you need to put in your search warrant affidavit? Put those 19 noise inside the apartment. So, I don't believe the community 20 things in your affidavit because when the judge gives you the 20 caretaking exception applies. Now, what I'd like to point out warrant you can go in, they'll be there. 21 and I'd like to make it clear what we're arguing here, what 21 22 And I think it's awfully curious on page 1 of the 22 we're arguing is that the police saw an opportunity to go in 23 search warrant affidavit that he's detailed boom, boom, boom, 23 to this man's apartment when his mother wanted to go check on 24 boom the items that he was going to find in the apartment. 24 him and try to find out where he was, they seized that 25 How did he know? How could he have known that those items 25 opportunity and followed her over to that apartment, and Page 89 Page 87 1 would have been in Mr. Cantu's apartment unless somebody told 1 obtained a key and went into his apartment and looked around. Now, five to ten minutes is an awfully long time in 2 him? That's our position. 2 It's a logical argument. It's reasonable based on 3 3 a 700 square foot apartment. To go in and look for a live 4 body, or even a dead body, you can get that done in a minute 4 the evidence, and it's unfair. If the courts say that you 5 have to have a warrant to search somebody's apartment, then do 5 to minute and a half. It's a reasonable deduction from the 6 you get a preview? Can you go in there and walk around and do 6 evidence that they used that opportunity to walk around inside all the searching you want to and later come back and get the 7 their suspects's house, and they found some things and then 8 warrant. they went and talked and recited what they found to Detective It would be our position -- what would have been the 9 9 Winn. 10 right way to do this? He could have walked around and looked 10 I'd like to point out a sentence in -- on page 3 of 11 for a body. If he was suspicious at that point, he should 11 the affidavit for search warrant. It's in the first 12 have secured the apartment right then and there, and they 12 paragraph -- not the first, full paragraph, but the first 13 could have gotten the warrant and come back within an hour, 13 paragraph on the top of page 3. It says -- and I'll give the 14 two hours, however long it took. But, no, he took his ten 14 Court a little introduction. It says, "Junger noticed just 15 minutes, and then he went over and talked with Junger. It's 15 inside the doorway what appeared to be a bullet hole in the 16 patently unfair. 16 wall. He asked Mrs. Cantu if her son owned a firearm, to 17 which she replied she didn't think so. Officer Junger and 17 Also, I want to point out in that same paragraph 18 they didn't know at the time Junger is walking around inside 18 Mr. Cantu left and secured the apartment." Here's the 19 the apartment, he didn't know about the Corvette, because if sentence, "Officer Junger personally told the affiant what he 20 you look further it says, at approximately 3 a.m. on November 20 observed at Cantu's -- Mr. Cantu's apartment." I think 21 the 5th, the next day, in the wee hours of the morning, after 21 there's a whole lot more to that sentence than written in this 22 midnight 1, 2, 3 in the morning, they see that Corvette 22 affidavit, I would suggest to the Court. 23 sitting out there. Thank you, Your Honor. 1998 on Moseley. 3 THE COURT: All right. Victim-related evidence, Your Honor, is irrelevant 4 MS. FALCO: Your Honor, even though Mr. Goeller to any of the special issues that are in 37.07 (1) in the Code 5 may disagree that Moseley is wrong, it is the law. And of Criminal Procedures. And as such, under our capital specifically Moseley versus State sets out that the victim punishment scheme, Your Honor, with no burden of proof really impact and victim character evidence is admissible at the on mitigation and no review of mitigation verdicts without any punishment stage in rebuttal to mitigation evidence. And burdens or quantums drafted into the codes, I think the specifically it's rebuttal to mitigation evidence because the admission of this evidence violates my client's Eighth 10 mitigation question asks, "After considering all the evidence Amendment Constitutional rights. And I'd ask for the Court to 11 sufficient mitigating circumstances exist to warrant a life declare that victim impact testimony and character evidence 12 sentence." And Moseley stands for the proposition that testimony -- or character of the complainant/victim's 13 victim impact testimony is part of all the evidence they're to testimony not be allowed in the trial of this case. 14 take into consideration. 15 And the two cases that I cited on the first page of 15 Furthermore, this theory was endorsed again in a 16 recent Texas Court of Criminal Appeals decision delivered 16 that motion, Judge, Supreme Court has held that "Evidence which emphasize the personal qualities of the victim, the 17 December 12th of 2000, Jackson versus State, in which they 18 emotional impact of the crime on the family of the victim and said "Victim impact and character evidence of which the 19 the family members' opinions and characteristics of the crime defendant is aware at the time of the offense is necessarily was irrelevant to the capital sentencing decision and created relevant to the defendant's future dangerousness and moral 21 constitution and acceptable risk that the jury would impose 21 culpability." GOELLER: Finally, Judge, I think the last motion for the day is I filed a Motion to Quash the Indictment and declare the Texas death penalty statute and the laws unconstitutional. I won't read, and I know the Court certainly does not want me to read this motion, but if the Court would note and let the record reflect my motion is 18 pages long. I've listed 21 separate paragraphs as to why I think the Court ought to quash both these indictments, and for this District Court to declare our Texas death penalty statutes and laws unconstitutional. And I'd ask the Court to grant the motion on each and every ground, or any grounds. THE COURT: All right. Anything from the State? MS. FALCO: Your Honor, clearly, taking into consideration all the hundreds of cases and the legal precedent that established the death penalty as	spouse and talked about in the letter emotional problems and money problems and time problems. We would have the option to have that juror brought in tomorrow at 3:00 and question him further, or we can agree with the State to go ahead and excuse that juror considering the circumstances. Do you it's my understanding you agree to excuse that juror? A. Absolutely. Q. Okay, all right. MR. GOELLER: That's all I have, Judge. THE COURT: All right. Say, I will tell you this, we've got I don't know of any other people who have asked to be excused, but if there are any they'll be showing up at 9:00 in the morning. And so I guess we need to have everybody here at 9, including the Defendant in civilian clothes, and not that anybody who we might interview tomorrow would have any cause to even look at the Defendant, but I think it would be a good idea. So, we need to be here at 9 to do that, if there is anybody else who shows up asking to be excused.
