

You can drone the world and you can sell your soul
And at the end of of it all what will you have to show
Your just another sadistic fuck whos time is running out
And if the muslims are the radicals then what are americans
 Ch, sick sick world sick world x8
Now everyones dieing to do dope to get away from who they are
While others strive for freedom even tho they know theres none
And the rich get rich while the poor we die happans through out the lands
While our own cities dont look much diffrent than the ones over seas we have bombed
