Late Pentecost - October 2021

October Highlights

Holy Eucharist Rite II each Sunday at 10 a.m. with guitar and/or clarinet the first and third Sundays, and organ the second and fourth.

Saturday, October 2 - Diocesan Convention, 8-2 (Virtual). Our delegate is Laura Cama; please hold her and all who gather in prayer.

Sunday, October 3 - St. Francis Day Blessing of the Animals - every pet is welcome at our 10 a.m. service! Both Trinity and the folks at the Church of the Redeemer will be remembering our sister, Holly Flood, on this day by honoring her love of animals. Bring an item for the Animal Care Sanctuary - food, treats, toys, fleece blankets, detergent, etc. There is a complete list at: animalcaresanctuary.org/programs-services/wish-list/

Sunday, October 17 - Vestry meets following coffee hour. Everyone welcome.

Our organist, Joseph Barber, with his dog, St. Francis, 2019. Joe passed on to the larger life on September 18. As of publication there are no details on a service.

Safely worshiping - an update - Bradford County cases continue to rise and vaccinated people may still be at risk to carry the virus or have a mild case. We are not requiring this, but the vestry strongly encourages us to wear a mask in church and to remain safely distanced.

Your UTO donations this year were wonderful - $112.15 has been counted. If you missed bringing in your blue box, you can still do so until October 17. Remember to take a new blue box home to begin to fill with your moments of thankfulness for next year.

Ministry opportunities - each of us is called to be part of the body of Christ and contribute to our common life. Consider helping with Altar Guild, being a Lector, providing flowers, hosting a coffee hour, being a greeter, sending cards or phoning shut-ins. Talk to Barbara.

Vestry News - A lot of work has been done to our buildings this summer - a new roof for the rectory and a half of a roof for the church, a new entrance to the sacristy, extensive gardening, new flooring in the parish hall kitchen. Your vestry works hard to be good stewards. Your input is valuable and you are always welcome at monthly meetings, usually the third Sunday following coffee hour.
