Continued Miracles

So you think you need a miracle and think God's forgotten you? Think again.

Debra Stout believes you need miracles now more than ever. Miracles change lives and they can change yours too. Are you looking for your prayers to be answered and for God to move in your life?

Are you suffering from lack of affordable housing, addictions, poverty, violence, abuse, rejection, financial debt? And why is this so prevalent?

Don't lose heart – God wants more for you. These inspiring miracle stories will help you discover how God severs struggles, breaks strongholds and destroys destructive paths.

Experience His glory and you can be set free. Implement seven keys to obtaining your miracle and witnessing God's impact on your life.
