Do Over Rovers 25 – Wolfpack 14

Warriors 32 – Raiders 14

Managers Notes:

Do-Over-Rovers The Rovers had a great hitting day, scoring 25 runs in 7 innings. The Wolfpack has some excellent hitters, but they weren't able to put together any big innings, until the 9th, when they scored 6 runs. For the Rovers, Tony Camillo was 4 for 4, with 2 doubles, a home run, and 4 RBIs. Dan Burbank was also 4 for 4, with 3 doubles and 4 RBIs. La'i Faleafine, Ellen Seiji, and Steve Mastronarde were each 4 for 4. Max Martin was 3 for 3, Mark Narciso and Brian Wong were both 3 for 4, Tom Wagenseller 2 for 3 with a walk, and Jean Chew 2 for 3. Joe Serochi made his season debut, going 2 for 3 and pitching the first few innings. Mark Narciso, Max Martin, and Tony Camillo also took turns pitching effectively (except in the 9th inning). Tony had the defensive play of the game, throwing out a batter at first base, from left field. La'i, Ellen, and Jean continue to amaze us. Collectively, they were 10 for 11! Congratulations to Roy Camillo, who announced the birth of his granddaughter, Giada Emmanuella Camillo.

Outlaws Bye week

Raiders

Warriors Warriors bats came alive today against the Raiders. Each player hit well and all had multiple hits. Big hitters were Doug Johnson 5 for 5/ Herman Lewis 5 for 5 and 7 RBI's. Tom Knab was 4 for 5 and had 4 doubles. Mike McCloud was 4 for 6 and a double and a homerun. Shout out to Rebecca Strouse who was 3 for 4 and had hits twice with bases loaded. Great team effort and thanks to John and Doug for taking care of the team while their manager was out.

Wolfpack Dave Gratz went 4 for 5 with a double and 2 triples and knocked in 5. Jeff Barnes and Dave Balfour each had 3 hits, 2 doubles and scored 3 runs. Big Bob Bohannon went 3 for 4 with 4 RBI. Mike Nichols, Brian Briegleb and Terry Pryor went 3 for 5. Better days are coming!!!!
