Grand Knight's Report

Brother Knights,

If it wasn't for the Editor In Chief of the Knightline you would not have this article. November snuck up on me and thankfully Michael Blakey PGK, and Editor In Chief reminded me I owed him this article.

Yes, October is now just a memory, and with that we start hitting our stride for the upcoming holidays. But before we move on to the holidays I want to reflect briefly on what the Knights accomplished this past month. There has been a lot of planning for the Arts and Crafts Fair that takes place on November 18th and 19th. Many thanks to SK Charlie Olivares for spearheading this upcoming event.

Pie Sales began this last weekend chaired by Brother Knight Daniel Wence. This event runs through November 19th following all weekend Masses. Brother Knight Wence has done an excellent job taking on this responsibility, and lets keep in mind he has only been a Knight for a few months. Thank-you Brother Wence.

The Knights were also instrumental in the Trunk or Treat that was put on by SEAS. Most of the Knights work was done behind the scenes, and of course a presence in the parking lot and around the property. Thank-you to all the Knights who volunteered and contributed to this successful event.

And coming up on Saturday November 18th the Knights of Peter Claver have invited the Knights of Columbus to attend the Gospel Mass that evening where pews will be reserved for the Knights. An exemplification will also be held where Fr. Michael and Deacon Rommel amongst others will be exemplified.

The Knights of Peter Claver was founded in 1909 in Mobile, Alabama. It is the largest African American Catholic Lay Organization in the United States. The organization was founded by the Josephites, a Catholic Order whose mission was to serve the Catholic African American community.

It would be nice to see the Knights well represented.

God Bless
Stephen Stenoski

Deputy Grand Knight Report

Worthy Brothers,

Happy holidays Brother knights. We have officially kicked off the holiday season with Halloween and All Saints Day. Next up we have Veteran's Day, Good Shepherd's celebration of Black Catholic History Month and then Thanksgiving. Then before you know it December will be upon us bringing the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the Season of Advent and of course Christmas. All of these occasions are good opportunities to reflect on how truly blessed we are right here in the good old USA. On top of all of that, we have been blessed with picture perfect weather for this change of seasons. We truly have much to be thankful for especially when we look at what others are experiencing in other parts of the world.

I propose that we each take some time to reflect on how good God is, to pray for those in this community and around the world that are in need of His grace and mercy and do our part to spread goodwill and peace. AS the working hands in this parish, the knights of council 11236 will be fully engaged this season too. We have the annual holiday pie sales, the Veteran's Day Mass to recognize those that have served their country, helping the St Josephine Bakhita ministry with the Black Catholic History observance, the annual Arts and Crafts fair and getting ready for the Adopt a Family efforts during the Christmas season.

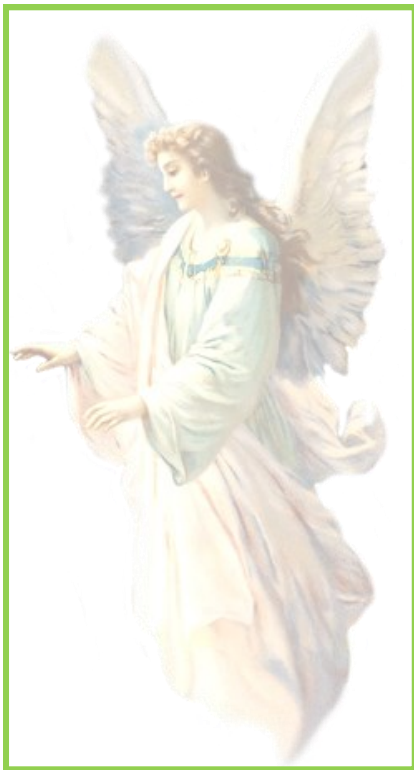

We will indeed have many blessings heading our way and lots of opportunities to devote our time, energies, and talent in the service of others. So, take some time to rest up, gather your strength and charge joyfully into this wonderful time of the year. Happy holidays brother knights and hope to see all of you fully engaged in spreading goodwill.

Rosary Crusade

The Knights of Columbus Rosary Crusade chaired by SK Michael Patrick continues to bring the parishioners of Good Shepherd together in prayer. We are into our second year of consistent ongoing Rosary prayer nights, held every second Tuesday of each month at 7pm in the Church.

We greatly appreciate all the Knights and parishioners who make time to come out and unite their hearts and voices together in prayer to our Blessed Mother. In these times we must hold fast to the Rosary!

PGK/FN Farewell Ceremony

The District Deputy, PFN, PGK, Honor Guard Commander and District Communications Director, SK Nicholas Suarez has taken a new job and is moving to New Mexico in November. Nick, Shelle and Lexi have been a staple not only in the Knights but also in our Parish community.

They have played a big part in a number of functions throughout the past years, bringing joy and happiness to everyone who knew them.

We wish them safe travels and all the blessings God has in store for them. May they receive as much joy as they brought us. God Bless them in their travels.
