1. The Long Island Power Authority has stated that the selection methodology for the South Fork RFP was reviewed in detail by the Department of Public Service. Is that correct?
2. Provide documentation with regard to the guidelines and criteria that apply to review of competitive procurements by the Department of Public Service. Please reply to this question in general and for the South Fork RFP.

Response:

1. Staff was not involved in the development or approval of the selection methodology. Staff attended several internal team meetings between LIPA and PSEG LI to observe the selection process by the selection team. Staff did not review and did not take part in LIPA and PSEG LI's South Fork RFP selection process. Staff did not observe or review any cost information.
2. Guidelines and criteria related to the South Fork RFP were developed and set forth by the Long Island Power Authority and its service provider PSEG Long Island in administration of the procurement.
