

My name is Mrs Nora B. Bondame. I was born and raised in a well-disciplined and religious family in the Philippines. I have 3 beautiful and amazing children. I finished my degree of BACHELOR OF ELEMENTARY EDUCATION in a private college back home. I've got my Teacher's License after passing the Professional Board Examination for Teachers, Take one! While teaching young children, i was able to finish my Master's Degree of Education. I had 18 years teaching experience before moving to Canada last 2013. I was awarded as one of the 'Most Outstanding Teachers' in my District/Hometown. I love working with children. There are thousands of reasons why I think helping children and their families is the best job in the world. Working with kids is fun ! Children motivate me to be endless energetic, patient and creative. Helping children and their families is the most rewarding job I can think of!
