

THE BEER OF RIGHTS (AND RESPONSIBILITIES)
of
THE ZYTHOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF NORTH AMERICA
Updated June 2, 2020

On July 1, 2015, a group of 19 individual beer lovers met to establish a social society with the following goals in mind:

- To foster the responsible enjoyment of beer,
- To educate our members and the community about beer,
- To elevate the image of beer in the community,
- To encourage healthy discussions about beer and how it is made and
- To promote the general welfare.

As a member or guest of the ZYTHOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF NORTH AMERICA, its events and/or activities you are agreeing to uphold the founding goals of the SOCIETY.

EXPECTATIONS OF MEMBERS/GUESTS

- Be a friend to all. Beer is a social beverage.
- Refrain from discussing politics and religion. Beer unifies us all.
- Do not disparage any beer. There is a beer for all times and places.
- Know your limits. SOCIETY events are structured for responsible consumption.
- Decorum and the manners of “polite society” are required.
- Actions that disparage the SOCIETY will not be tolerated.
- To uphold the Constitution and By-Laws of the ZYTHOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF NORTH AMERICA.

Any member not adhering to these guidelines, the Constitution or By-Laws will be subject to removal from SOCIETY events/activities. Multiple instances will be handled as the Executive Committee sees fit.

If these goals and expectations are within your social norms, sign your name and enjoy some beer, friends and a wonderful community!
