

Tarot Coaching Agreement

My Commitment To You

I commit to show up on time, mentally, spiritually and physically prepared for the reading.

I commit to provide a safe space, free of judgment and full of compassion.

I commit to check in with you before, during and after the reading to ensure I stay on track with your desired outcome.

I commit to being honest and open about what I see in the reading and to let you know if something is outside my area of expertise. (For legal, financial, medical or psychological advice, please consult a licensed professional.)

What I Ask Of You

Before filling out the intake form, please take a quiet moment to think about your situation and what question(s) you would like more clarity around. Before you join the session, in person or via Zoom, I invite you to take another second to set an intention for the reading. You can create your own or use the one at the bottom of this page.

Please be open to sharing and providing feedback throughout the reading so we might co-create a reading that truly resonates with you.

What To Expect

Once I receive your intake form, I will take a moment to review it, then we will work together to form your reading. I will check in with you before, during and after the reading to ensure I stay on track with your desired outcome. Please be open to sharing and providing feedback throughout the reading so we might co-create a reading that truly resonates with you. Once your reading is complete, if you are unclear on any of the cards I pulled, you may ask for more clarity. Asking additional questions or to pull additional cards will be considered as a separate reading.

Payment and Refund Policy

Payment must be received prior to your reading. Please send payment to paypal.me/SoulAlignedTarot.

All sales are final.

Intention

(Before the reading I ask that you set an intention. You are welcome to use mine or create your own.)

"To all spiritual beings of light who are stepping forward to assist us with this reading, Thank you so much for your love and guidance. I ask you to surround this space sealing it as a sacred healing space, allowing me to receive everything I require from this session and to release anything that no longer serves me. I am now open to receive your Divine guidance. May it be for the highest and greatest good of all beings. Thank you and so be it."

Soul Aligned

SOULALIGNEDTAROT.COM ©