

WELCOME TO myCTCA.com

Cancer Treatment Centers of America® strives to provide clear information that empowers you to take an active role in your cancer treatment. To help, we created myCTCA.com — a secure online portal where you can access, manage and share information related to your cancer treatment with loved ones and hometown physicians.

Registered users of myCTCA.com can do the following:

- Review lab results
- View medications and request prescription renewals
- Connect with your care team through secure messaging
- Access medical records and medical documents
- View and manage previous, current and future appointments
- Grant unique access to caregivers and hometown physicians
- Graph vital signs over your treatment timeline
- And more!
