Glenn Armstrong updated the Board on a proposed Solar Farm in our town. Hyde is going to look into some of the points we will need to cover in regard to this project. It may be large enough that we will not have any control. The Planning Board and Hyde Clark, our attorney, have been schedule to meet with the Board at the December meeting.

Supervisor Van Winkler told the Board that the matter of Ambulance coverage has not been settled yet but that our certificate of need has been rejected.

A request from Justice Kenneth Miller for a Court Clerk was discussed. Councilwoman D. Peplinski will check with other Towns our size to see what their status on this matter is and what the pay rate is.

Supervisor Van Winkler reported that it does seem that the funds from the American Protection Act may used toward our salt shed. Glenn Armstrong
