

Tuition Assistance for LumberTech Classes

To help with training new and current employees in the lumber and building material industry, the Wisconsin Lumber Dealers Education Foundation offers financial assistance up to 50% of the registration fee for members who attend BLD Connection LumberTech class during the 2023-2024 class season.

To qualify for this assistance you must:

- Be a current WLDEF Member. A “member” of the Foundation shall be any retailer or supplier of lumber or building materials that resides in Wisconsin and Upper Peninsula of Michigan and is a member in good standing with BLD Connection (formerly Northwestern Lumber Association).
- Class registration fees must be paid in full to the BLD Connection. (Do not deduct the WLDEF financial assistance from the registration fee)
- Attendee must complete the class. Qualified LumberTech classes include: Estimating 123; Blueprint Reading & Material Take-off; Maximizing Sales; Sales Development Workshop Yard & Delivery Workshop; LBM Inventory Management; Risk Management for LBM Dealers; Gross Margin Mastery.

Upon verification of full payment and attendance at the class, WLDEF will process your request. Tuition Assistance payments will only be paid to a member company. No payments will be made to an individual attendee.

WLDEF reserves the right to decline any assistance request that does not meet all criteria. Webinars and BLD Connection convention and conference seminars are excluded from this program.
