Old Business

Dale Saunchengrow to address the council reference Maintenance that still were not been address by the maintenance department.

Paul Watson requested to address the council in reference to City Park Bath Room, Walking track but Robert Forthman the Maintenance Supervisor was not present, then Paul Watson moved on to the Mobile home ordinance 535, again Paul Watson was not allowed to address the Ordinance due to legal, and that would be addressed in closed session.

Betty Thilges requested to address the council reference run down house and Mr. Clark Davis allowed to speak on behalf of Mrs. Caroline Alexander on 6th Street. Mr. Davis would like the City of Dixon start enforcing the Nuisance Ordinance and get the City looking good again.

NEW BUSINESS:

SOR about water rates were handed out and ask the Council to take a hard look the upcoming rates, and the same information will be handed out for the next two months. The rates needs to be talked about and John Doyle can explain better but was not present to do so.

Mayor was to speak about MOP Insurance but was absent, so he will address it on the next council meeting.

Thoroughbred/ Data tech software used by the City Collector was talked about. Data tech wanted 4500. A year and 4500. Every year after for five years, Thoroughbred wanted 1900.00, that was to train the City Clerk, update the software and when the new Collector they would charge additional 30.00 per hour to train that person for a total of approximately 2500. And that would be for the next 5 years as long as the City keep the same collector.

Paul Watson made a motion to go for Thoroughbred, seconded by Jimmy Doyle, the motion was approved by a vote 5 to 0.
