

ANNOYING OR EGREGIOUS CONDUCT OF RESIDENT

Annoying or egregious conduct includes but is not limited to profane, intimidating, and/or abusive physical or verbal conduct directed at, or which affects a neighbor or neighbors or other homeowners in the community, which is not an isolated act or incident, and by its nature, has an adverse impact or effect on other homeowners and/or their use and quiet enjoyment of their properties. It is recognized in a civilized society that such conduct that may otherwise be described as extraordinarily bad or near outrageous, adversely affects the safety, quality of life, and welfare of other homeowners in the neighborhood and community at large far more than annoyance or nuisance conduct. This effort is designed and intended to handle situations where the homeowner/tenants or guest(s) conduct is/are causing annoyance or nuisance of a nature or to an extent which adversely affects the quality of life or enjoyment of home and property by a neighbor or other owners in the community. (Refer to Rules & Regulations 3.060.0 - Annoyance/Offensive Conduct.)
