Message from Father Apostolos

When The Phone Rings

Twenty years ago one sparkling September evening our lives were forever changed by a phone call that announced the passing of our 16 year-old goddaughter in an automobile accident on the drive home from school. Ten years later on another beautiful September afternoon another phone call announced the passing of my best friend and brother priest to a heart attack.

In both instances, the world stopped spinning as we were tipped into the blackness of profound grief. For many long weeks there was but a micro-second of peace upon waking before the shadow of loss stretched over the breaking day. We went through the motions of everyday life joylessly, affecting a cheerful disposition for our children's sake but hollowed out inside.

In time, the pain subsided to a dull ache and the blessed rhythm of the mundane helped us get acquainted with a "new normal" with gaping holes where loved ones used to be. And I offer this reflection to share whatever insights I may have gleaned, personally and pastorally, with others who are struggling or who will struggle with grief.

How do we keep moving when a phone call or a piece of mail rocks our world? When the stability of our life is stripped away and when doubt replaces faith, when darkness seems to overtake the light? There are no pat or easy answers. Grief is a first-person experience and unique for each of us. Even our most precious Orthodox faith can be sorely tested in the fog of mourning.

When tragedy strikes we must give ourselves permission to grieve, to cry, to rage. Acceptance is the final stage of the grieving process but it cannot be rushed and there are no schedules or timetables for how quickly we move through the stages of denial, anger, and negotiation.

Years ago, the bitter taste of loss settled heavily over the parish I was serving as we witnessed in a few short weeks the passing of babies and children, brides-to-be and young people, those in the prime of life and venerable family members. In order to help the community navigate the grieving process, I invited grief counselors to conduct a seminar for the parish and their presentation was very helpful.

For instance, we were encouraged to reach out to our family physicians for medical support when needed and this without any taint of shame or judgment. One unexpected death in the parish I served years ago was so devastating that the entire family of the deceased had to be admitted for treatment in the same hospital where the father had died.

Loss impacts our bodies as forcefully as our hearts, minds, and souls. Insomnia, loss of appetite, lethargy, intense anger, and clinical depression are all common ailments and can be particularly pronounced for long-time caregivers. Seeking medical help is often necessary to allow the somatic shock of the loss to subside.

Questions of faith and the purposes of God may also arise, certainly in the case of an untimely death or the passing of a child or young person. These questions, arising from the depths of the heart, cannot be answered but must be asked. The question "Why?" is the one most readily posed and the one for which no good answer exists. I have learned to resist the urge to offer up glib replies, even passages from Holy Scripture, until the intensity of grief has abated.

After one of the many funerals I conducted that dread summer years ago, my Metropolitan pulled me

Ministry Sunday

Sunday, September 9

Hosted by the Stewardship Committee

Our ministries had tables during Coffee Hour where parishioners could sign up, get involved, or simply get more information on the dozens of ministries Holy Trinity offers.

Being an active participant in the ministries of the Church is one of the best examples of Stewardship.

aside as I struggled with my own grief to tell me "God takes us to Himself when we are closest to Him." Hearing this from him helped me confront my own feelings of doubt.

What can we do for those who are enduring a period of grief? How can we effectively alleviate at least some of their pain? Grief counselors all agree that merely being physically present is of tremendous benefit. In the flurry of activity between death and burial the family and friends gather to support the survivors. But it is after the shock of loss wears off that the heaviness of grief settles in and it is at this point when support is truly needed.

Words are of very little value here, certainly trite ones like "God never gives us more than we can bear," or "He/she is in a better place." Such well-meaning clichés can even do more harm than good. Simply being a comforting presence, stopping by with food or coffee, helping with everyday tasks, or sitting quietly to share memories, on the other hand, are tangible expressions of care.

And as Orthodox Christians, we have access to tools which can guide us through the grieving process. The Trisagion service can be said for the souls of any we have lost, even in the case of our non-Orthodox family members and friends. This need not be done only on a Sunday after the liturgy but may be offered privately at a time convenient to the suffering.

The little-known but beautiful Akathist Hymn for the Departed may also be offered. These stanzas of lyric prayer can be incorporated into our prayers in the home and need not be formal. St. Paul reminds us that "when one member of the Body suffers the whole Body suffers." Grief, though always personal, ought not be endured in isolation.

As much as we may wish it otherwise, grief and loss is part of the fabric of life and cannot be avoided. But "a burden shared is a burden halved" holds true and by "bearing one another's burden" we "fulfill the law of Christ" among ourselves.

✝ THE HOLY TRINITY ENDOWMENT FUND ✝

The Holy Trinity Endowment Fund was established in 1992 with an initial deposit of $2,000. The goal was to build the Endowment Fund whereby the interest and appreciation would one day provide sufficient income so Holy Trinity would no longer be totally dependent on an annual festival to supplement Stewardship income.

The Endowment Fund is obligated to preserve the donor's contributions such that the principal will remain inviolable and be held in perpetuity by the Church. The funds are prudently managed by the investment committee, which reports to the Parish Council. The only withdrawals from the fund the investment committee approves are from the earnings and appreciation above the donor's contributions. Withdrawals are used only to benefit Holy Trinity and its ministries.

Over the course of the past twenty-six years the committee has held steadfast to this mission, and as a result, generous donors from our Church, desiring to leave a legacy in perpetuity for their family, have made contributions totaling 520,000. Those original contributions have grown to the current value of $882,606.

The Endowment Fund has, over the past few years returned to the Church over $ 50,000 in dividends and has applied over $110,000 of appreciated value to reduce the outstanding balance of our loan from $998,000 to $651,000. When the Endowment Funds were pledged as collateral at Chase to secure the loan, they reduced the annual interest rate on the loan from 7.25% to 2.45%. This resulted in an interest savings of over $50,000 per year for over seven years. The loan was transferred to the American Bank & Trust in August 2015, (without the Endowment Funds as collateral) and is now at $ 651,000 @ 3 ¼%.

This is your opportunity to put your lifetime thumbprint in the history of Holy Trinity Cathedral.

We have been blessed by the generosity and foresight of the individuals and families listed on the next page. We benefit today from their kindness and vision. If your circumstances allow you to give a gift above and beyond your annual stewardship commitment, then please take this occasion to join the others in creating a legacy by pledging your gift to Holy Trinity Cathedral's perpetual Endowment Fund. Gifts of $10,000 or more will be separately listed along with others who have reached that level. Your pledge can be made over as many as three years.

Any gift, no matter the amount will be combined into the general endowment fund, and will be greatly appreciated.

Η Κατηγορία Των 2019!

By Juli Pritsos

It has been a very busy first month at HTA! We have so many wonderful families and staff members working to build this amazing program. Every day is a new adventure and our students are excelling and thriving with each new thing that is introduced and mastered!

Our newest staff member is not new to HTA. Sharon Daniolos worked for several years teaching music to our Littles and has been a substitute teacher for the Kindergarten class many times. Sharon has also been a mentor of mine and I am thrilled that she is teaching the Pre-K4s and Kindergarten class on Tuesdays and Thursdays. With her years of experience and gifts of children's literature, Orthodoxy, and music (including all of the hymns of the Church!) she is an amazing addition to our already stellar staff! Her lesson on apples is a perfect example. From apple tastings to graphs to making apple prints, these kids were engaged, entertained, and excited!

This year our HTA families come from a number of churches: Assumption Greek Orthodox Church, Exultation of the Holy Cross (OCA), Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral, St. John Romanian Orthodox Church, St. Sava Serbian Orthodox Church, Sts. Simon and Jude Catholic Church, and St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church. It is a blessing to have so many representatives at HTA not only for their culture but for their faith as well. We are one big happy family and leading us all is our principal and proistamanos, Father Apostolos Hill – HTA couldn't be in better hands!

I encourage you to come by the HTA Treats and Sweets booth at the Original Phoenix Greek Festival and meet our parents. Each family is volunteering several hours to help our Cathedral's biggest fundraiser. They understand that without our church we would not have a school and they value the Orthodox education and the attention bestowed on their children every day. In return, I value and appreciate their commitment and dedication to what I believe is one of the greatest early education institutions in our beautiful state of Arizona! It's families like these that bring life, love and happiness to our community and we are so very grateful to each and every one!

Music Ministry

by Terri Alexon, Director
www.occfellowship.org

He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and fear the Lord and put their trust in Him.
Psalm 40:3

Have you heard anything different during worship on Sunday? New sounds have been emerging from the loft, including musical changes for the Liturgical responses.

The Holy Trinity Cathedral Choir has been diligently learning a new musical setting that will hopefully encourage parishioner participation. Another significant change in progress, and with the encouragement and blessing of Fr. Apostolos, is the addition of the Beatitudes. Be expecting the text of this beautiful hymn to be included in the weekly bulletin for parishioners to sing along and pray OUT LOUD during worship!

Also recently added to the music ministry's repertoire is a song composed by Fr. Michael Pallad of St. Haralambos Greek Orthodox Church in Peoria. On September 22nd, Holy Trinity Cathedral hosted the inaugural Orthodox Christian Choral Fellowship Conference attend by approximately 80 Orthodox faithful from across the state of Arizona.

At the conference held in Speros Community Center, Fr. Michael directed and recorded his original musical composition of the 23rd Psalm. It was a beautiful experience for all, especially the school aged children who participated. A mp3 download of the song will soon be available for your listening pleasure through Facebook at www.facebook.com/occfellowship as well as www.occfellowship.org.

If you're interested in contributing your voice to the music ministry, please contact Terri Alexon by email at htphxmusicdirector@gmail.com or by text or call at 480-233-2416.

St. Nectarios Books & Beyond

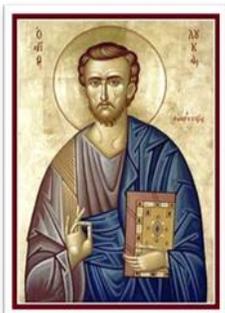

By Patsy Harris

Sometimes in the midst of all of our preparations and the actual Festival event itself we seem to forget about the Ministry aspect of our Church Festival. During this weekend, we have so very many opportunities to witness to and share our Orthodoxy (and Greek Orthodoxy in particular) with the many visitors we have at Holy Trinity Cathedral. In addition to sharing our foods, Dance, and Music traditions, we are also sharing our Liturgical music and worship through our Church Tours, featuring our Choir and Chanters along with the beautiful explanations offered by Father Apostolos, and through answering the many questions our guests have about who we are we share our very beliefs. Please try to remember to refer guests to browse through the St. Nectarios Books & Beyond to give them the opportunity to see the items we use in our worship, and to perhaps have a chance to have a more relaxed and personal conversation about Orthodoxy. THIS is the TRUE MINISTRY of the Bookstore! Thank you for helping us reach as many of our guests as possible!

October Holy Days:

October 6—Thomas the Apostle: in Hebrew the name means “twin,” and he was a twin. This is the Apostle who doubted Christ’s Holy Resurrection until he could touch His wounds personally. He preached in India, and was martyred on Mount St. Thomas near Madras.

October 18—Luke the Evangelist: the name in Greek means “wolf.” A Greek of Antioch, he followed his father’s profession and became a physician. St. Luke is called “the Glorious Physician” in Colossians 4:14. He was a fellow worker of St. Paul and stayed with him until Paul’s martyrdom. There is no evidence that Luke himself suffered martyrdom.

October 18—Marinos the Martyr: I’m sorry, I only know he was the Elder at Anazarbus.

October 26—Demetrios the Myrrh-Streamer: he was a soldier of Thessalonika in the Roman army who preached Christianity to them and converted hundreds. For this he was imprisoned, and was visited there by his friend, Nestor, who told Demetrios about the Emperor’s renowned gladiator Lyaeus. Demetrios asked Nestor to challenge Lyaeus, saying that the power of Christian prayer would allow him to defeat the gladiator. When this came to be, the Emperor was so angered that he ordered the immediate deaths of both Nestor and Demetrios. The title “Myrrh-Streamer” means that from his body flows a sweet-smelling liquid, which has been known to bring about many miraculous events and healings.

Have a very blessed month! Come visit and reflect on what you must personally do to follow Christ!

If St. Nectarios Books and Beyond can assist in any way, please contact us at:

Narthex Ministry

What YOU Can Do to Make Visitors Feel Welcome

Have you noticed new faces in our Narthex, Sanctuary, and Speros Center? We've had many visitors stop by lately. Some are Orthodox and visiting from other Parishes, some are returning to Orthodoxy after a long time away, and some are coming to check out Orthodoxy for the very first time. No matter how they come to us, let's make sure we say Hello!

"Welcome! I don't believe we've met yet. My name is (your name)" is a great start. Offer to walk with them down to Coffee Hour. Ask them to sit with you. A personal connection goes far!

Young Adults:

We are looking for those who are older than Sunday School age and would like to assist in the Narthex Ministry one Sunday every few months to help greet parishioners OUTSIDE the double doors.

Key duties:

- Welcome parishioners who drive to the upper drop-off driveway, open car doors, and walk with the parishioners to the Narthex.
- Walk with seniors—or those who are carrying items—from the bottom of the stairs up to the Narthex.

The goal is to have an outside presence to assist our parishioners and visitors as they approach the Cathedral.

Interested? Text Kristen Vasilarakos at 602-332-8809 or email at kvasilarakos@cox.net.

Maintenance Corner

Submitted by Ted Fourlis

September has been a busy month for your maintenance committee. Here are the updates:

We were able to repair our main sewer line issue at the Speros Center. Thanks to Jim Contes and API Plumbing, we were able to hydro-blast 55 years of grease out of our lines and they are now like new. This was a big job, but we are glad we did not have to dig up the line. Savings of $5500!

We had the east side tree removed and a new gate installed just north of the basketball court. This gate will be utilized to bring in our needed equipment, trucks, and trash bins for our Festival operations.

We had to replace a compressor for the freezer in the auxiliary kitchen.

This was an unexpected breakdown and expense, but the freezer is holding at -10 degrees!

Scott Vaughn remodeled the dance room—tearing out the old carpet, sanding the floor, and sealing it! Scott also installed new ceiling tiles, and a wall-mounted air conditioner to keep everyone cool.

Peter Bilitsis, Paul and Dimitri

Valonis, and Jim Contes installed a massive projection screen behind the stage valance. 150lb screen and they centered it perfectly!

Peter Bilitsis has amazing plumbing skills! We spring leaks and Peter repairs them. Who needs George Brazil when we have “Peter Brazil”!! Thank you, Peter, for all your hard work.

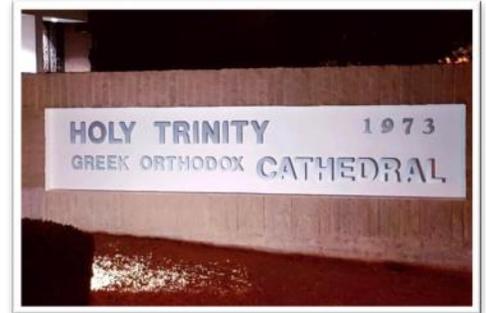

The Valonis Bros do it again! Major work was completed in the kitchen to prepare for our upcoming Festival. Sealing, cleaning, coffee machine repairs, and they did a major overhaul on our ice machine, which needed attention badly. Paul and Dimitri worked with our air conditioning contractor and were able to get the air unit in the dance, Philoptochos, and GOYA rooms up and running!

Thank you to Courtney Harris for his generous donation of a new air compressor and compressor lines with couplings. Several of you left other small tools and painting items anonymously so thank you for your donations. We still need many items on the list to assist us, so look around that garage for unwanted or unused items to donate.

Other items completed: kitchen maintenance for the quarterly health inspection, women's bathroom toilet leak repair, ice machine valve leak repaired along with all the connection lines to coffee machines, main line landscape leak repaired, hazard poles installed around landscape water boxes, main line valve to the Speros Center repaired, and HTC front sign repainted for better visibility—it needed it!

As we approach our Festival time, please let us know if you see anything that needs attention.

We have a great team working hard to improve our aging campus. Please contact Ted Fourlis at 602-625-8835 and htcmaintenance1973@gmail.com or Peter Bilitsis at 602-317-7780 and pkbilitsis@gmail.com for further information. Thank you, Ted & Peter

Sunday School Attendance and Dance Rehearsals

And David, wearing a linen ephod, danced with all his might before the LORD, while he and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouts and the sound of the trumpets, (2 Samuel 6:14)

Beloved in the Lord,

Seeing our children in the Divine Service on Sunday brought joy to our Metropolitan Gerasimos' heart as summer gives way to the new school year. Dance rehearsals for our annual Parish Festival have commenced and Sunday school begins just after Labor Day.

The Sunday school staff has been busy exploring how best to support the spiritual development of our Cathedral youth and has selected two new curricula which allows for families to be involved in the weekly lessons at home and for the students to come to class prepared to discuss the week's assignment.

This year, our high school students will be taught in the Cathedral immediately following the dismissal of the Liturgy. They will be learning the basics of the Orthodox Christian faith and the lessons can be found here; <https://oca.org/orthodoxy/the-orthodox-faith>

Please also be aware that in order to be eligible to participate in dance rehearsal for the week, our students and dancers must sign in during the Sunday school lesson in the Cathedral. It will no longer be permitted for dancers to by-pass the Divine Liturgy and Sunday school in favor of dance rehearsal.

As parents, educators, mentors, and clergy, we are tasked with the sobering responsibility to advance the spiritual development of our young people, to model Orthodox Christian living for them, and to instruct them in the most precious faith. Being mindfully present as the Body of Christ assembles to constitute the Holy Church of Christ is the first essential step along this path.

May the Lord God bless our families, students, teachers, and instructors as the new ministry year begins!

In Christ,

Rev. Fr. Apostolos Hill

Orthodox prepare to celebrate Easter

Standy Reid, The Phoenix Gazette
The Rev. James Tavlarides reads the Gospel during Holy Week services of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church, 1973 E. Maryland Ave. Sunday is Easter in the Greek Orthodox Church, which times the festival based on a decree of the Council of Nicea in 325 A.D. The council ruled that Easter should be celebrated on the Sunday after the first full moon of spring, but always after the Jewish Passover. Easter services will begin at 11 p.m. Saturday at three Valley Orthodox churches: Holy Trinity; St. Katherine Greek Orthodox Church, 2716 N. Dobson Road, Chandler; and St. George Eastern Orthodox Church, 4530 E. Gold Dust Ave. In addition, ogage vesper services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Sunday at both St. Katherine and Holy Trinity.

Margie Porter brought this clipping from 1986 to a Philoptochos meeting, saved by her mother all these years. That's Father Phil on the left and Father Michael (we believe) on the right. Father Michael later went to Boston.

OPA—Orthodox Parents Association

Cindy Kyprianou, President

OPA had a busy September month!!!

We welcomed the new Ecclesiastical year with a Back to School luncheon after Divine Liturgy on Sunday, September 9th. Everyone fellowshiped over delicious sandwiches, caught up on the summer trips, and were amazed at how much each child has grown during the summer break.

We held an OPA Parents meeting after Divine Liturgy on Sunday, September 16th. We informed our parents that the purpose and goals of our ministry is to support each child in becoming a well-rounded Orthodox youth through our monthly events that include Paraklesis services, Christ-centered activities, retreats, outreach, and community services.

We had our first All Youth event on Friday, September 21st. Father began the evening with a prayer service, and everyone fellowshiped over pizza, fun activities, and made 'Save oh Lord Your People' potted basil to bring home. The Jr. & Sr. GOYAnS helped our Church to get ready for our upcoming annual Festival by labeling the kitchen trays. Our parents relaxed and mingled in the rehabbed OPA room enjoying a social happy hour while our children were busy. A wonderful event for the whole family!

The Little Lambs had their play date on Sunday, September 23rd after Divine Liturgy. They played and practiced their parade together to get ready for the Festival. Please have your camera ready to catch each cute face during our upcoming Festival weekend!

Do you get OPA emails?

OPA communicates primarily through email via our e-newsletter. To stay informed of all of the youth, parent, and family happenings at Holy Trinity, make sure you are receiving these emailed newsletters. It's easy, just email your information to Cjecomom@gmail.com or cwkyprrianou@hotmail.com and we'll get you added to the list.
