Message from Father Apostolos

A Place to Belong

As the year draws to a close, our Holy Trinity Cathedral family must pause to give thanks to God for the many blessings He has poured out upon us. In many ways, this has been a banner year with new souls added to the parish, both through the birth of children to our beloved families and through adult conversions to the Holy Orthodox Christian faith.

And while on one of my early morning “prayer walks,” seeking God for a vision and direction for us in the year ahead, I was moved to consider how vitally important relationships are to us, both on a personal and a parish level. Strong and healthy relationships are hard to come by in the blur of day-to-day life. We may profess to “know” a number of people on a superficial level, whether co-workers, neighbors, social acquaintances, even fellow parishioners, but to what degree may we rightly claim to be in relationship with them?

Relationships are of paramount importance where parish growth is concerned. One of the authors I consulted in my research on “relational ministry” made a salient point. ‘Typical’ patterns of parish integration tend to follow a “Behave – Believe – Belong” pattern. This is to say that newcomers are expected to conform to the group dynamics and accede to the parish’s doctrinal particulars before finding a seat at the table. The author rightly stated that this pattern is exactly backwards.

Rather, in finding acceptance and the embrace of a worshipping family, newcomers – whether brand new to Holy Orthodoxy or long estranged former members of the parish – will more quickly come to believe in the Gospel of Jesus Christ and conform their lives to His teachings. St. Paul reminded the Romans to “Accept one another just as Christ accepted you in order to bring praise to God.” (15:7)

Those long membered at Holy Trinity enjoy robust familial relationships and strong bonds forged over decades of shared experiences. Thank God for this! But how might we expand the circle of friendship? How might we pull others into the light of Jesus’ love and our own? How can we forge new friendships with those we encounter every Sunday but whose names and histories we haven’t yet learned?

There are many “out-of-the-box” ministry programs we could follow. And, God willing, we will seek to implement whatever “best practices” we uncover and feel applicable in the year ahead. But I believe strongly that a simple shift in our outlook will bring about a more authentic and organic result. A shared lunch or coffee after the liturgy, the exchanging of contact information, even sitting together in the services can help foster the type of resilient relationships we seek.

Imagine how much richer our lives will be if we set as a personal and a parish goal the building up of the Body of Christ through newfound friendships? If each of us pull one new person into our circle of relationships, how much stronger will the fabric of our community be one year hence?

How many of our many visitors might become members if given a reason to stay? In the end, it is always a “who,” a personal encounter, and not a “what,” that brings souls home to God. I invite you to join me in this endeavor in the coming year to embrace the challenge of relational ministry for the strengthening of the ties that bind us together in Jesus Christ and to the glory of God!

Fr. Apostolos Nield

Stewardship

By Sandy Meris

Happy New Year to all of our Holy Trinity families! As we have previously reported, 2019 was a remarkable stewardship year for Holy Trinity. Our goal was $360,000, but we far surpassed that goal with 320 families pledging $419,051.28 for 2019. What a joyous end to our stewardship year!

And as we embark on our 2020 campaign, we ask our families once again, to fill out a new Stewardship Pledge Card (something that must be done every year) and prayerfully consider your 2020 pledge. Pledge Cards can be found in the Narthex, or simply visit Holy Trinity's website and fill out your Pledge Card there. Visit: www.holytrinityphx.org, click on "Stewardship" in the upper right-hand corner and fill out your Pledge Card. It's that simple!

Whatever your pledge is, if we all are truly giving what we are financially able, there is no telling where we can go from here. Clearly, if we work together for the good of the church, we can accomplish any goal we set.

And aside from financial giving, please consider how else you can contribute toward your stewardship. Perhaps joining a new ministry, serving your fellow parishioners at Coffee Hour, singing in the choir, volunteering in the Church office, or attending more of the services. It is important to remember that stewardship encompasses giving of time, talent, and treasure.

In the end, the future of our Cathedral is in our hands. Let's continue to work together to make 2020 another record stewardship year for Holy Trinity.

To all of our Holy Trinity stewards, we thank you for your tremendous generosity and support. Here's to a happy, healthy, and prosperous 2020!

THE GIVING TREE UPDATE

A huge thank you to all of our Holy Trinity parishioners who contributed to The Giving Tree. In total we all came together to raise $425 in cash and $470 in gift cards. A whopping total of $895, which was given to the families of UMOM Shelter for Homeless Families in Phoenix.

These acts of kindness and generosity helped their families to have a little brighter Christmas. Clearly, when Holy Trinity parishioners are asked to help those in need, they give with generous hearts.

Desert Springs January 2020

Memorials Update

Beginning in the New Year, we will aggregate memorials on the first Sunday of each month for all memorials beyond the one year mark.

For those who have recently reposed and whose families wish to celebrate their memorial on the nearest Sunday, we will accommodate their requests as we are now, e.g., for 40-day, 6-months, and one year memorials.

All those past the one year anniversary mark will be celebrated on the first Sunday of each month with the usual exceptions for Major Feasts, e.g., From Lazarus Sunday through Thomas Sunday, Pentecost, etc., and other Sundays as directed by me.

Seeking Special Project Office Volunteers

Volunteers are always needed and appreciated!

A huge thanks to some of our parishioners who came in recently to help prepare not one but two huge mailers! Because we had extra hands, the mailers were assembled and stuffed quickly. The office always needs extra hands to prepare and assemble these mailers on occasion. If you are available, willing, and interested in helping, please reach out to Diana Camacho in the Church office to let her know we can call on you when assistance is needed.

Remember: Many hands make light work!

Day Two Volunteers

Seeking Weekly Church Office Volunteers

We would like to invite you to join our Church Office Volunteer Staff. If you have general office experience and can work one day a week or more from 9:00am to 3:00pm, you are a perfect candidate. Please contact Paul Katsenes at Pkatsenes@cox.net or 602-421-7200.

Nativity Pageant

Performed by Sunday School

Music by the Choir

December 22, 2020

Music Ministry

by Terri Alexon, Director

Sing praises to the Lord, O you his saints, and give thanks to His holy name. Psalm 30:4

Christ is Born! Glorify Him!

It was another beautiful Nativity season for the music ministry.

Once again, the Cathedral Choir sang with the Sunday School children replete with many carols during their annual presentation of the Nativity story. This year, Cathedral Choir member Peter Vardalos opened the pageant by reciting an inspiring introduction to "O Come, Emanuel." While the children exited, the Choir sang an upbeat version of "Go Tell It on the Mountain" accompanied by Terry Seretis on the piano. An old, Christmas concert favorite, "Holly and the Ivy," concluded the pageant.

For the Royal Hours of Christmas and Vespers, the Byzantine Choir chanted the responses. On Christmas Eve, the Cathedral Choir was present to sing the responses during Divine Liturgy. Protoypsaltis George Duvall was assisted once again by our Pastoral Assistant and future Assistant Priest, Alexander Eliades.

To cap off the year and in celebration of the Lord's birth, the Cathedral Choir and their guests gathered at Christo's Ristorante in Phoenix to enjoy a delicious meal together. It was an enjoyable time for all as we looked back on another rewarding year in the music ministry. And our humble thanks to Fr. Apostolos and all the parishioners whose words of encouragement and financial support have blessed our efforts!

Have a Blessed New Year!

St. Nectarios Books & Beyond

By Rita Papaspyrou

The month of January gives us the opportunity to celebrate the Feast of Holy Theophany.

In the East, the Nativity of Christ was celebrated together with Epiphany of January 6th, while in the West, the Nativity was celebrated before Epiphany became known to them. It is important to stress that, contrary to what is written in some places, Theophany is NOT the birth of the Church. The Church has always existed since the beginning of times. The Church is God and since God has always existed, so has the Church.

The terms Theophany and Epiphany are used interchangeably. Theophany is a Greek word. 'Theophania', (Theos - God; phaneia - manifestation) means in literal translation, "Manifestation of God". The literal meaning of Epiphany (Epi - above; phaneia - manifestation) is "Manifestation from above".

The Orthodox Church has defined the Epiphany of the Holy Trinity as the appearance of God during Christ's baptism in the Jordan River. It is the beginning of Christ's official dedication to His Divine Mission in the presence and manifestation of the Triune God, the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. John the Baptist, the cousin of Jesus and the one chosen by God to proclaim His coming, was preaching in the wilderness and was baptizing all who would respond to his message calling for repentance. As he was doing this, John was directing the people toward the one who would baptize them with the Holy Spirit (Matthew 3:11).

The Scriptures tell us that Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. Initially, John would not do this, saying that Jesus should baptize him. Jesus said to John, "Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness" (3:15). John consented and baptized Jesus. When Jesus came up from the water, the heavens opened suddenly, and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him. The Bible records that the Spirit descended like a dove and alighted on him. When this happened, a voice came from heaven and said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with Whom I am well pleased." This was the voice of God the Father.

Christ's baptism in the Jordan was "theophany," a manifestation of God to the world, because it was the beginning of our Lord's public ministry. It was also a "theophany" in that the world was granted a revelation of the Holy Trinity. All three Persons were made manifest together: the Father testified from on high to the divine Sonship of Jesus; the Son received His Father's testimony; and the Spirit was seen in the form of a dove, descending from the Father and resting upon the Son.

Theophany represents our redemption from darkness and illumination by the light of the knowledge of God. This is why it is also referred to as the Feast of

St. Nectarios Bookstore Message continued on page 13

Lights, the Lights which illuminates our conscience and our Christian way of life. “I am the Light”, Jesus said. The Church celebrates on this day the illumination of the world by the light of Christ.

As Orthodox Christians, let us always walk upright in the Light of Christ!

Icon of the Feast

The Icon of the Feast of Theophany tells the story from the Gospels in images and color. On the left side of the icon we see John the Baptist who is dressed in camel's hair and has the appearance of one who lives in the wilderness. His arms are outstretched, showing an attitude of prayer and reverence, but also directing others to Christ. With his right hand he is conducting the baptism.

The Heavens open, the voice of the Father is heard, and the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove descends upon Christ.

In the center of the icon is Christ being baptized in the Jordan. He is standing in the water wearing a waistcloth, and with His right hand He is blessing the waters of the Jordan. Above His head is the Holy Spirit descending as a dove upon Him. At the top of the icon, a semicircle depicts the opening of the Heavens and the voice of the Father.

Angels of the Lord gathered on the shore of the Jordan River give praises to Christ.

An angel of the Lord receives Christ as He comes out of the water.

It is time for cozy gatherings with friends and Christmas sweets! Happy Holidays!

It's already the end of December, which means it's time for holiday fun, eating Christmas cookies and making plans for next year. This December it's all about remembering great moments of Greek school and getting inspired for 2020 school year. During December, we made Melomakarona - Greek Christmas cookies. We learned how to prepare them while learning Greek and singing Greek Christmas carols.

In Greece, there are Christmas lights everywhere, and we are ready for a peaceful and joyful end of the year.

Congratulatory and Happy Ads!

In each issue, Desert Springs will offer the opportunity for our community to share good news with others! Ads will be a standard 1/8" of a page (horizontal).

This is the place to recognize your family, friends and fellow parishioners for anniversaries, birthdays, graduations, get wells, awards, special accomplishments, good deeds, above-and-beyond volunteering—anything that is positive, endearing and thoughtful.

Cost is $20 per ad for one issue. Photos are acceptable.

Sample Size

Fill out the form and include an optional photo and full payment (cash or check) and drop in the boxes in the Narthex and Church Office or mail to Kristen Vasilarakos c/o Holy Trinity Cathedral, 1973 E. Maryland Avenue, Phoenix, 85016. Checks payable to Holy Trinity Cathedral. Or contact Kristen at kvasilarakos@cox.net for more information.

Ads will be designed by the Desert Springs staff. Submitter will be contacted prior to publishing if editing of the content of the wording is needed.
