

Sharon's Sensational Stories! February Edition

Coming To The Library Company Of Burlington In February

Burma Sahib by Paul Theroux is a fiction novel set in India. At age nineteen, young Eton graduate Eric Blair set sail for India, dreading the assignment ahead. Navigating the social, racial, and class politics of his fellow British at the same time as he learned the local languages and struggled to control his men would prove difficult enough. But doing all of this while grappling with his own self-worth, his sense that he was not cut out for this, is soon overwhelming for the young Blair. Eventually, his clashes with his superiors, and the drama that unfolds in this hot, beautiful land, will change him forever..

Fatal First Edition by Jenn McKinlay is a cozy mystery novel. Briar Creek Library director Lindsey Norris and her husband, Sully, are at a popular library conference in Chicago to hear book restoration specialist Brooklyn Wainwright give a keynote address. After the lecture, Lindsey looks under her seat and finds a tote bag containing a first edition of Patricia Highsmith's Strangers on a Train, inscribed to Alfred Hitchcock.

The Mediatrix's Guide by Michael Rich, MD, MPH is a non fiction novel. Gain the confidence you need to raise a child well in the digital age. In this positive, science-based approach, Dr. Michael Rich addresses your questions and concerns about your children's screen time and media use. The Mediatrix's Guide empowers you to guide your family toward smart and healthy digital choices.

The Women by Kristin Hannah is a historical fiction novel. Women can be heroes. When twenty-year-old nursing student Frances "Frankie" McGrath hears these words, it is a revelation. Raised in the sun-drenched, idyllic world of Southern California and sheltered by her conservative parents, she has always prided herself on doing the right thing. But in 1965, the world is changing, and she suddenly dares to imagine a different future for herself. When her brother ships out to serve in Vietnam, she joins the Army Nurse Corps and follows his path.
