The Running Grave is a large print novel by Robert Galbraith. It is the seventh novel in the entertaining Strike series. Private Detective Cormoran Strike is contacted by a worried father whose son, Will, has gone to join a religious cult in the depths of the Norfolk countryside. On the surface it appears to be a peaceable organization. Yet Strike discovers that there have been several unexplained deaths.

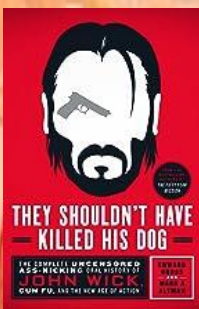

A Traitor in Whitehall by Julia Kelly. Evelyne Redfern, known as “The Parisian Orphan” as a child, is working on the line at a munitions factory in wartime London. When Mr. Fletcher spots Evelyne on a night out, Evelyne finds herself plunged into the world of Prime Minister Winston Churchill’s cabinet war rooms. However, shortly after she settles into her new role as a secretary, one of the girls at work is murdered, and Evelyne must use all of her amateur sleuthing expertise to find the killer
