IAWG Executive Leaders and Board of Directors NOVEMBER 2023 Message

Greetings from your Officers and Board,

Our Bingo Luncheon Buffet was an incredible afternoon. Two hundred fifty ladies and gentlemen attended the event purchasing raffle tickets and bidding on the Auction. We would like to thank Donna Silvers for her hours of time and efforts resulting in the enjoyment and success of our Bingo fundraiser. Our thanks to Yvonne Bushman for the very difficult and time-consuming effort to accommodate our members and guests with their seating preferences. Those who donated items for our raffle contributed to our success and we are most thankful for your generosity. It's amazing how many people enjoy playing Bingo and it is so satisfying because it financially supports our Scholarship fund and Charitable Donations.

Please see the flyers of the coming events in this newsletter. Important forms to pay attention to are:

Candidates running for the 2024 Board of Directors along with your voting ballots that must be signed to count. (see page 7)

2023 Woman of the Year Form that requires a signature. (see page 8)

Christmas Toy Drive and Dinner Flyer (see page 11)

2024 Membership dues which are due January 1, 2024.

Flyers are also available on our Flyer table at all meetings along with our 2023 Membership Roster and New Member Applications.

Please pay special attention to the important flyers of coming events that require your response

So many things to look forward to in the near future.

This is the time of year when we celebrate Thanksgiving. It wasn't until 1863, in the midst of the Civil War, that President Abraham Lincoln proclaimed a national Thanksgiving Day to be held every November. Previous to this Thanksgiving was celebrated as a thanks to God, however, it was proposed religious demonstration of piety was not appropriate for a government based in part on the separation of church and state. While religious thanksgiving services continued there were no further presidential proclamations marking Thanksgiving until the civil War. Imagine all those turkey's we've consumed through the years.

From the Officers and the members of the Board we wish you a bountiful and happy Thanksgiving

Newsletter correspondent,
Corinne Verili Courtney

CANDIDATES FOR 2024 IAWG OFFICERS

ARLENE BIN-DI NITTO – I have been a member of IAWG since 2019 and served on the Board of Directors in 2021 and 2022. I have served on my current position as President for the year 2023. I value the purpose of this club and what it stands for. Because of the importance of the IAWG and its legacy, I am announcing my nomination for the Office of President for 2024.

CHARLENE O'MALLEY - I have been a member of the IAWG since 2020 and an Officer (Vice President) since 2023. It has been an honor and pleasure to serve as an Officer for the Club. The membership is growing and the new events past and future are really exciting. We are looking forward to a successful year. As the nominating time approaches, I would like to submit my nomination to continue being Vice President and fulfilling my duties. This is a wonderful group of ladies and I look forward to working with them again.

YVONNE BUSHMAN--I have enjoyed my time as Treasurer of the IAWG and would like to continue to serve the membership. It has been a great experience working with so many wonderful women on the Board and I look forward to another great year. Thank you for your support.

ANDREA BIN--I joined the IAWG in January 2019. I have served as Secretary since 2020 and I am looking forward to continue my secretarial duties thru 2024. I am excited to be a member of IAWG and have acquired so many new friends. I look forward to more friendships and happy events in the future.

CANDIDATES FOR 2024 IAWG BOARD OF DIRECTORS

CATHY BORRONE - I have been a member with IAWG since 2013. I have been on the Board since 2022. I enjoyed being on the Board and looking forward to continue working with everyone in 2024 if re-elected

TINA CANAPA - I would like to run for the IAWG Board of Directors for another term. I have enjoyed serving with this fantastic group of ladies and look forward to the next year in which I will be producing a gala and fun show that all can participate. I am also presently the vice president of the Italian Community Service Auxiliary and have been for many years. I reside in Redwood Shores. I have made wonderful friends in this club of great and intelligent women. Let's continue to thrive Ladies

Chris Ercoli - I have two grown children and one grandson. I go to Arizona to see my grandson as often as I can. I enjoy traveling, but when I'm home I like to keep busy. I belong to a book club and am trying to take part in the IAWG book club also. I love to play Mah Jong and play as often as I can. I've taken up Table Tennis and have discovered it can be quite a workout! I became a member of IAWG about a year ago. I enjoy the meetings and have met some wonderful women. I also belong to the Roth Auxiliary at Lucile Packard Children's Hospital at Stanford. The auxiliary runs the gift shop at the hospital and our profits pay for uncompensated care of children who are not covered by insurance. I was on their Board of Directors for four years. I also belong to Liguria Nel Mondo, an Italian club for members whose ancestors are from Genoa and other areas of Liguria. The purpose of this organization is to keep the Genovese culture alive and to award scholarships to students of Genovese descent. I recently became a member of the Rotary Club of Belmont Redwood Shores. I look forward to working with this organization to help improve, by good works and programs, the lives of so many here and around the world.

I would like to get more involved working with these amazing and talented women, not only helping the Club continue to thrive with new ideas and be part of the leadership, but also in supporting our Italian heritage.
