Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

A conflict of interest may exist when a committee member or official could be influenced, or where it could be perceived that they are influenced, by a personal interest in carrying out their responsibilities.

Conflict of interests can be classified as either:

- Real: where a direct conflict exists between current duties and private interests
- Perceived: where it appears or could be perceived that private interests are improperly influencing a member's responsibilities
- Potential: Private interests are not currently but could come into direct conflict with a member's responsibilities
