Prelude

Dearly beloved HOZ:

Please examine closely with me the words of the Lord in the above noted scripture and the instruction that that the Lord left for the saints of that hour. He stated, “And when these things begin to come to pass...” Those things the Lord referred to were found in the previous scriptures, verses 25-27 of the same chapter of Luke 21. These things did not happen during Moses’ covenant time or during the gospel; thus, we hold that his words were not for that time period, but for the time of the Everlasting Gospel of the prophet. The Lord went on to say, “Then look up and lift up your heads for your redemption draweth nigh.” God did inform the Prophet Webb that he would bring forth these judgments under three distress signals: (A) a bizarre pattern of weather, (B) destruction of the world’s economy, and finally (C) atmospheric trouble. As we all can agree, (C) is the only one that we have not seen as of yet; however, we have seen enough to lift up our heads and be assured that we are living in the hour of our deliverance. God would have our focus to be directed towards strengthening each other as we pray for faith and patience. Amen!

Tribulation Comes First

Unto HOZ (and all those that continue to hope in the fulfillment of the promises of the Everlasting Gospel, given unto James T. Webb, surnamed of God, Zerubbabel; who was and is the man-child, firstborn of the wisdom of God):

I pray that your hope be not diminished, but brightened by your continuous witnessing of the fulfillment of those prophecies given unto the Prophet Webb during his administration of the everlasting gospel. This fulfillment is that which we – by the “spirit of the watchmen” – bare continuous witness almost daily. Brothers and sisters, we do hold that our God has truly sent his voice to our world. We do hold that we have heard his call and do bare witness to the actions and counter balancing actions of this divine spirit called the “...Spirit of His mouth...” (II Thess. 2 v8). By the power and substance of our faith and by the eye salve of God, which is the spirit of the watchmen, we are blessed to be able to not only fight for our own salvation, but forewarn others of the evil that is and is to come. Please know and understand that we whom believe in the promises of the new covenant must pass through our time of tribulation as assigned unto us by the plans of salvation (Rev. 2 v9-10); for although our flight is difficult, the reward of our faith shall be more than outstanding (Rev. 7 v13-14). All saints must pass through the door of tribulation, for it is the door to the kingdom of God (Acts 14 v22; Heb. 11 v35; Rev. 2 v9-10; Dan. 12 v1; Isaiah 66 v5). Our task in this hour is to hold to our faith in our God, and ride home in the vehicle of love (Matt. 5 v11-16; Matt. 5 v43-48).

Opening of the Sodomite Sea

In II Esdras 5 v7 of the Apocrypha we read: “And the Sodomite sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known: but they shall all hear the voice thereof.” As we go on dear reader, we do well to acknowledge and place this scripture under study, for of a certainty its fulfillment is upon us now. The Prophet Esdras did prophecy how this evil spirit of sodomite sin would emerge among the people with a bold call to its justification and shall spring forth to the detriment of man. The two-horned beast, which already has merged with our government and has issued forth a summons of approval directly from the seat of the beast, has empowered the spirit of sodomy (Rev. 13 v11). (Note: For more info on this point I refer you to our Heralding Newsletter #1 entitled, As We Bare Witness).

The angel of hell, called Abaddon (Rev. 9 v11), has been given full authority over the horns of the beast as seen in Rev. 17 v17. The horns are the symbol of power. In Habakkuk 3 v4, bottom half, we read: “...Horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.” It is by this power from hell that he (Abaddon) shall work with the seventh death king under the symbol of the frog (Rev. 17 v10; Rev. 16 v13). Together they have begun to take over the governments of the earth and have already begun to feed them the “bread of outer darkness” as seen by Zerubbabel.

Vision (By: James T. Webb)

“I saw Abaddon make up bread of outer darkness from bad and corrupted corn from his field. As he mixed his batter there was light in his place. He cut the light out and there was darkness in his house. He made bread of outer darkness, which is evil doctrine and by this he shall deceive the whole world.”

Saints, fear not this hour, for God has sent unto you the “Message of Elijah”, which did emerge from the “Message of the Covenant” and the “Everlasting Gospel” that was given unto the Prophet Webb. The “Message of Elijah” was empowered not by wonderment as with Rev. 17 v8, but by the spirit of God (Zech. 4 v6) made manifest by the order of God (Rev. 1 v1).

The frog death king’s role in this debacle is to issue forth the “spirit of wonderment” so that men might follow the examples of those noted men and women we have held in such high esteem over the years: people we do admire and respect from afar. [Note: Webster on the word “wonder” means: a person, thing or event that brings forth admiration.] It is by their iconic status in the world’s industries that Abaddon shall initiate his attack. By planting the seed of doubt against righteousness, some shall be led astray and confused as to what righteousness really is (Apocrypha: II Esdras 5 v1-2 and verse 11; Rev. 17 v5). In II Esdras 5 v9-11 (Apocrypha) we read, (v9) “And salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and all friends shall destroy one another; Then shall wit hide itself, and understanding withdraw itself into its secret chamber.” (v10) “And shall be sought of many, and yet not be found, then shall unrighteousness and incontineny be multiplied on the earth.” (v11) “One land also ask another, and say, Is righteousness that maketh a man righteous gone through thee? And it shall say NO.”

The Doctrine of Prosperity

HOZ, as we think upon these things, we can only shake our heads at the pitiful and pathetic religious system within our nation and world, for we are encamped by evil spirits seeking to turn us against our God and his righteousness. Yet, all our so-called “men of the cloth” can think of is: what’s in our purses. All being servants of falsehood – with total dedication to the two horns that sit upon the head of the beast – are ministers of the devil, having accepted the offer that which Christ, our Lord, rejected (Matt. 10 v7-10; Mark 6 v7-8; II Thess. 3 v6-12; I Thess. 2 v9). Now we do understand that that offering (from those whom could afford to give) was allowed under the gospel dispensation; it was to take care of and help the poor only: not the ministers (I Cor. 16 v1-2). Furthermore, it was never to be done under any type of demand or on the church floor, but in secret so that the blessing of God could be returned to that individual in secret (Matt. 6 v1-4), for Paul, the chief administer of the Gospel, understood well his calling and knew any money gatherings on the church floor would offend God (St. John 2 v12-17)!! In addition, we know that the Devil promised his ministers a paycheck by resurrecting a tithing system; this system was meant only for the Levites of Israel: a system that was abolished for all time at the death of Christ on the cross (Col. 2 v14).

Love and Trust No More: Iniquity Dominates

In II Esdras 5 v9, line two (Apocrypha) we read: “...And all friends shall destroy one another...” In this scripture beloved HOZ and all those that stand with them, we can see a time that we have never known before is now in effect (Daniel 12 v1). The world is now facing a three-point wrath and none shall escape. The love and respect for the word of God has been put aside for the logic and reasoning of evil. Thus, God has now responded by taking from the earth his hand of protection, which is his love (Matt. 24 v12). He has given the ruling of this world to the beast, which shall feed it the “bread of outer darkness and wonderment” as seen in Rev. 17 v17, Matt. 13 v21 and Rev. 13 v8.

The Spirit of the Watchmen

As with our teacher and mentor, James T. Webb, surnamed of God Zerubbabel, we, HOZ, make claim to no special skill or do we have knowledge above that of any other man or woman. However, it is the Wisdom of God, the Queen of Heaven who sits beside the throne of God, which reveals these things to us (Books of the Apocrypha: Eccl. 6 v22-27 and 32-33; Eccl. 1 v6 and verse 19; Eccl. 4 v11-15; Eccl. 14 v20-21; W.O.S. 9 v4 and verses 9-11; Eccl. 24 v1-5). She being our Mother-God, having herself come out of the mouth of the Ancient of Days as was with Christ, the word of God, it is she that has both chosen us and given us the “spirit of the watchmen”. We read the following found in Ezekiel 3 v17 quoting, “Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: Therefore hear the word at my mouth, and Give them warning from me!!!”

All praises be to the full throne of God with a special salutation unto the Wisdom of God, our heavenly mother and divine queen!
