Dear friend or foe:

The Wisdom of God wants all to understand that the above scriptures have their place in all our lives. The Tabernacle of David Church, founded by James T. Webb, is the sanctuary of the New Covenant and the first fruits of the plans of salvation of Mankind. Be it known that the judgment of God shall start here. Be it also known that all that have professed to be prophets and ministers and servants of God shall be judged and weighed by every precept of the commandments of God and the testimony of Jesus. Mother Wisdom wants it made clear that both the commandments and the testimony shall be used in this judgment of the sanctuary. If one does not measure up to both every line and precept of these standards of God, YOU shall be rejected!! It does not matter who you are, or what you professed to be. It does not matter what your last name is, or who you are married to. God will not spare you because you got the wrong advice. The bible was in your hand and you were charged to keep the commandments and the testimony of God. You were charged to show love and not to allow any man or woman to turn you against the holy doctrine of God. If your love for all God's people...regardless of where they live, or what they believe...falls short, you will be rejected!! This is an honor group of saints, whose very identification was the commandments and testimonies of Jesus (Rev 12 v17). If you allow the dragon (or any of his seed) to minister to you against the divine testimony of God, and if you give in to fear and intimidation of a man or woman's person, and not the fear of God, you will be rejected!!

The Ancient Men Rejected

The ancient men of Ezekiel's prophecy concerning the sanctuary of God, the Tabernacle of David, have both misled and deceived the church. They have lied and distorted the testimony of Jesus. They have used fear and intimidation to control the lives of the saints. They have judged the saints falsely and lifted themselves up to unquestionable status. They have removed saints from the church, calling them tares, and by doing so; they challenged, and was in direct defiance to the divine order of Christ as seen in Matt 13 v28-30, as well as a rejection of the testimony of Jesus (Matt 5 v7). God shall begin his inspection of the church with them!! They have elevated both themselves and relatives to the status of "Divine Prophet of God". They have used lies of sorcery to deceive the congregation. They have stolen both the reverence of God and the monies which the Lord set aside to support the church during the time of trouble. These are sons and daughters of perdition who shall be rejected by Christ as in Matt 7 v21-23.

Dear friend, I hope that these words are not offensive to you because they are the words of the Wisdom of God sent down from the full throne of God in the message of Elijah. Blessed are those who art not offended!

All praises, honor and thanks be to the full throne of God – with a special salutation to the Mighty Queen of Heaven, the Wisdom of God Most Holy,
