

TOPIC: BEFORE THE BARN THE PURGING SHALL COME!

SUB-TOPICS:

- 1) VISION OF THE PROPHET JAMES T. WEBB
- 2) NIGHT DREAMS: TERALD D. BLAKEY SR.
- 3) NIGHT DREAM: BILLIE CHATMAN

SCRIPTURES:

Eccl. 3 v3:

“A time to break down”

Eccl. 3 v5:

“A time to cast away stones”

Isaiah 62 v10:

“Go through, go through the gates, prepare ye the way of the people, cast up, cast up the highway; Gather out the stones, lift up a standard for thy people.”

Matt. 3 v12:

“Whose fan is in his hand, and he shall thoroughly purge his floor.”

Dear friend,

Mother Wisdom now points us to the statement of John the Baptist in Matthew 3 v12, top part quoting, “Whose fan is in his hand and he shall thoroughly purge his floor.” She then directs our attention to Ecclesiastes 3 v3 and 5, which reads, “A time to break down.” (v5) “A time to cast away stones.” The Prophet Isaiah made clear that the stones to be broken down and cast away represent resistance to the righteousness of the Lord (Isaiah 62 v10). From the statement made by John, we are made to understand that a special time period of purging is set in place for them called the “Wave Sheaf” by Moses and “Thy People” by the Prophet Daniel (Daniel 12 v1). We also note that this purging must and shall take place prior to entering the barn of the Lord to receive the change, for John clearly stated, “Whose fan is in his hand (and) he will thoroughly purge his floor.”

[Note: Webster on the word ‘floor’ is the corresponding surface of anything. Webster on the word ‘corresponding’ is agreement, conformity and/or communication by exchange of letters. As we examine these definitions it is clear that the purging will begin with HOZ, for we would be his floor of the message. God does this to make sure we are on one accord in our thoughts as well as in our writings. As we further note, Webster on the word ‘and’ means as a result of. Thus, the time of purging comes first; we will not enter the barn of the Lord until we have been thoroughly purged of anything offensive before God.]

We hope it is clear that the word ‘and’ separates the time of the “purging” from the time of “entering” into the barn. Be it known that all of us must pass through this process. Also, I am directed to state that it shall first begin with HOZ and all those whom stand with HOZ. Again, this personal reasoning shall be done by the spirit of God only, as was mentioned in Rev 3 v18-20. However, I do strongly encourage all (myself included) not to resist this reasoning, for it is done by the power of God (Romans 13 v1-2).

Vision of the Brown Mule (Excerpt: JTW’s Letter: The Dark Day – 4/28/79)

“A mule is a beast of heavy burden and also affliction. When the vision is applied to the people, it has just that meaning. I saw in a lot a brown mule. I saw Christ striking the mule three times in the head and the mule bowed his head lower at every strike. After this the Lord went to the side of its body. There was no saddle on its back, but the Lord brought out of his body where the saddle should be a blanket, black as tar. And there was a midget horse also black as tar. Upon rising from the brown mules back, the spirit of evil left with lightening movement. When we apply it to ourselves the Lord shall strike through our conscience first, for the head is the seat of knowledge. Then he shall remove from our bodies all evil, because man is a dual being. The mind is where God dwells and the five senses of our flesh is where evil dwells. He shall remove all wrong from both mind and body under the outpouring of the Holy Spirit; in these things we are a beast of burden. Marvel not, even the angels are under the symbol of four beasts.”

Dear friend, I hope you can see clearly from this vision that all saints will be required to humble themselves and focus on the reasoning and standards, which are required of us all.

Night Dream: Terald D. Blakey Sr. – 1/6/ 2012

“I saw an overhead ceiling light in the house burning brightly. Suddenly, a team of bats flew into the room and began to fly just below the flow of light, flapping their wings profusely. They appeared to be attempting to block the flow of light from by the constant circling and flapping of their wings. I sought the help of others to aid me in removing the bats from the house”.

Wisdom has caused me to understand that these bats are evil spirits of confusion attempting to block the knowledge of holy and righteous light from the saints as they pass through the purging period of the Lord.

Night Dream: Billie Chatman – 1/7/ 2012

“I saw a young, former member of the church standing by a door with her hands reaching as if to open the door, and as she reached, she looked back at me and smiled.”

In this hour of the purging, we must be unified in the law and testimonies, not only for ourselves, but also for those coming to us and are open to receive from us. They shall stand at the barn door of the Lord and look to us for the correct guidance. We must be careful what we say to them, and must never give unto them any singular opinion not sanctioned by God.

At this point, I ask that we look back at a statement the Prophet James T. Webb made before God and man, which was: “I would rather receive death at the hands of God than to preach one word that would cause one to fail in the judgment of God.” This same statement by the Prophet Webb I too have stated many times by prayer unto God as he looked upon my pledge.

Dear HOZ, this was a blood tie between God and the Prophet Webb. Now, in all humility and fear of the Lord, allow me to state that as God began to awaken me to the coming of the ‘Message of Elijah’...even before I knew what it contained, before I knew that it was the ‘Message of Elijah’ and also before I sought out the help and advice of anyone else...God did remind me of James T. Webb’s oath unto God – from the very first message. He also assured me that if I took on this assignment I too would be under that same oath. Little did I understand or know that James T. Webb had already been made aware of this fact from a dream I had in the 1980’s, which is as follows.

Night Dream – 1980’s

“I was walking down a long country road with a very tall man. I knew he was an angel from his baby-like appearance and his extremely tall height. As we walked down the road, he asked me this question: “Do you love the church?” My answer was, “Yes, I love the church.” After walking further he again asked the same question and my reply was the same. After walking further, he asked for the third time, but this time my answer was different, which was, “I love the church more than my own life.” At this point the tall man smiled and disappeared, for he had gotten the answer he sought.”

Bro Webb’s interpretation: “I see that you love the church.”

Night Dream – January 12, 2012

“As I lay in bed next to a young child – as a parent would nap alongside its child – I awoke to see a large, python snake attempting to attack us. I quickly secured the safety of the child and then attacked the snake by pulling out a gun and shooting the snake several times, which was injured, but did not die. I then sought another weapon from others in the house, but none had one. I then turned over several pieces of heavy furniture on the snake, which was attempting to hide from me. One piece of the heavy furniture cut the snake’s body into two pieces, killing it.”

I thank the Lord that he did not cause me to bare this burden alone, but sent unto me many that I love to help and assist me in every way; however, the Lord did send the night dream of Jan 12, 2012 to remind me, as well as all that he has sent to assist me, that the responsibility of how this message is delivered is mine and mine alone.

Isaiah 62 v10 states, “Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway: Gather out the stones: Lift up a standard for the people.” Amen!

Blessed are they whom are not offended in these sayings. All praises be to the full throne of God and a special salutation to Mother Wisdom!

Your brother in Christ, our Lord,
Terald D. Blakey Sr.
HOZ – 1/15/12

P.S.: We must remember that the ‘Message of Elijah’ cannot be based on our individual opinion, but only one...and that is of God’s (1 Kings 18 v21)!
