Scriptures:

- Matt 25 v4: “But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps:”
- Psalm 104 v15: “And wine that maketh Glad the heart of man, And oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth a man’s heart.”
- Prov. 21 v20 “There is treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise: ...
- Isaiah 61 v3 “To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, The oil of joy for mourning, The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that they might be called trees of righteousness, The planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.”
- Matt 3 v12 “Whose fan is in his hand and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: ...”

Prelude: Greater than Great

What can be said by man...any man...that would even come close to testifying of the Lord’s greatness, for though he is the Almighty God, he does show love like none other. With all his magnificent power, he demonstrates, by example, the gentlest of touches with his children. We are more than fortunate to know him, to know the living God who created all things. The term grateful is too small a term to suggest even the notion to describe how we feel about our God, and his fear is the power that strengthens all our hopes and directs our thoughts. Our Heavenly Mother and Heavenly Queen, the Wisdom of God, has every situation well in hand. She covers us with a blanket of divine love like unto a mother hen when loving and protecting her chicks. She refuses to allow us to be harmed in any way by anything. She knows all things and counterbalances all things, bending all things to the will of God on our behalf. We will be with our God soon – released from this world by divine, executive judgment for all eternity – and will be the first to be redeemed among men and women (Rev 7 v14-15). Amen! Thus, our God invites us to view his executive judgment on display with great joy and laughter. God is laughing at all wickedness as he destroys it with the power of good and righteousness (Psalm 2 v4; Psalm 37 v13; Proverbs 1 v26). As the dragon attacks us from all sides, the Lord would have us to join him in laughter (Psalm 52 v6-7).

Unto my beloved HOZ,

With all my heart, I do love each and every one of you. With this being said, I present to you at this time a message of encouragement from our God to us all. The Lord, whom has chosen us, chose us not by our righteous deeds, but by our faith, which is our way of expressing the love of our God. Again, our faith is demonstrated by our refusing to quit or be intimidated by evil. However, the Lord would have us all to trim our lamps in this hour. We all have a cross to bear, but God loves none like he loves HOZ, for we have stood with him despite our struggles. And because of this small thing that we do on the behalf of God, he has rewarded us with great knowledge of his coming appearance and judgment. At this time, he would have us to know that the oil in our lamps is only for us only!! Our food we will share; our clothes we share; our money we share and our homes we share; nevertheless, our oil we will not share, we cannot share, for we only have enough for ourselves!

Trimming of the Lamps

Matt v 25 v8-10: (v8) “And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil, for our lamps are gone out.”

(v9) “But the wise answered, saying, not so, least there be not enough for us and and you...:”

(v10) “And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.”

My beloved HOZ, as we bare witness with our own eyes to the fulfillment of the prophecy of James T. Webb and as we sit back and watch the voice of God in activation of all three distress signals of judgment promised to the world by God, it would do well that we all seek to trim our lamps. Matthew 25 v7 quotes, “Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps.”

Here is where we put on the “love” and “forgivingness” of God in full display, for the fullness of the love of God is the testimony of Jesus in full display towards one another and all men and women: without hidden malice (Matt 5 v14-16 and 5 v43-48). Here is the truth to the “oil” of God. Again, it is by the love of God in us that we are connected to the pipes seen by Zechariah (Zech. 4 v2). Also, it is the love of God that causes the perfect conditioning needed to both escape his wrath and to prepare for deliverance (I Peter 4 v8). Please note the first line that states, “And above all things.”

HOZ, Peter makes it very clear here that the display of love and forgiveness towards all is the key. Here is what keeps the wicked from being delivered. Here is what condemns the forces of darkness. They cannot show love neither can they show forgiveness!!! This is why the attack of ungodliness – that attacked the Tabernacle of David Church – was focused on destroying love, for it is the key to being born of God!!! As in St. John 6 v50, that spirit mentioned here is the love of God: fully activated and put on display. As we all know, the love of God comes to us issued through four streams, which are:

1. Divine Love: is devotion and obedience towards our God with a willingness to serve.
2. Parental Love: is respect without end towards your parents.
3. Conjugal Love: devotion, respect and faithfulness to your mate (spouse).
4. Brotherly Love: respect and honor of our neighbor and all that he possesses.

Now we know exactly what God will require from all of us. We are counseled by the Lord to trim our lights in this hour, for the bridegroom cometh and we must be ready.

The Hour of the Foolish Approaches

Our God has already prepared an answer for all those that would request of us to share our oil. That answer, as we know, is found in Matt 25 v9, last part, quoting

“... But go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.”

You see, the love of God can only be obtained from God himself; the purchasing price is obedience. Rev 3 v18 states, “I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire.” From this statement, we clearly see that we all must go to God on this deep and personal matter. Again, the “four loves” must be found intact at the deliverance hour. This is the key to being delivered. No other deeds done will matter (Matt 5 v21-24). The foolish allowed the dragon to convince them to accept ungodliness, which divided the doctrine of perfect love within them, and thus, they became modern-day Pharisees that loved only them that stood with them. This was a pure setup (Matt 5 v46-47). The testimony of Jesus Christ can only be demonstrated through perfect love; and only by this demonstration of perfect love can one hope to obtain the promises of salvation. It was an act of perfect love on the behalf of Christ that forced him from the “throne-to-the-cross” on the behalf of his children in order to bring them to salvation by the power of his blood.

Let us all stand and give all the glory our souls can muster to give all praises, honor and glory to the full throne of God: with a special salutation to the Queen of Heaven and the Architect of the plans of our soul salvation – The Most Holy Wisdom of God!
