TOPIC: THE LONG AWAITED HOUR OF DELIVERANCE

- SUB-TOPICS:
- 1) My Sheep Shall Hear My Voice
 - 2) Final Summation: Thus said the Lord
 - 3) The Analogy of Prophecy

Zech 10 v1: “Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain.”

Joel 2 v23: “And he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former, and the latter rain in the first month:”

Joel 2 v32: “And it shall come to pass that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord has said, and in the Remnant whom the Lord shall call.”

Dan 12 v1: “And at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.” (Amen!)

Dear friend and servant of the Lord God:

Congratulations on your quest of reaching the hour of deliverance while holding on to your faith, and the testimony of Jesus for God has seen your travail and heard your cry unto him. Your God is at this time passing through seven universes in a parade of righteousness to deliver you from the seven-headed dragon and the evil host planted among you in the garden of God (Matt 13 v24-30). Now please pay close attention to the voice of your Mother Wisdom, for She has acknowledged your flight and every moment of your suffering shall be paid back double and triple fold. Be assured of this fact. Now please notice the Lord’s statement concerning this hour, for it is of great interest and joy to us who love and believe in him. Matt 24 v22: “And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved; but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.”

Dear friend, know this, the Tabernacle of David, rebuilt by God as in Acts 15 v16, applies only to you! You are the “elect” that Christ spoke of in this incredible statement. Also, know that the full throne of God loves you so much that the Ancient of Days, God the Father, opened His Book of Times before the appointed time of deliverance. He has shortened your appointed time of suffering because the dragon in a state of paranoia, is attempting to take you by force in a last ditch effort to stop the plans of salvation.

Please allow Mother Wisdom to explain to you your experience in this last hour. Dear saints you are the key to the plans of salvation. You are the first fruits unto God, our savior. You are the wave-sheaf. [Webster on “wave”: to move back and forth as to signal] [Webster on “sheaf”: a bunch of something tied together, cut stalks such as wheat, rye, oats and barley.] (Exodus 29 v23-24)]

Dear saint, Mother Wisdom and Christ have designated angels whom will assist you in your preparation for this hour. They are here awaiting the signal from Mother Wisdom to wave you before the Ancient of Days as an acceptable, first fruit to the harvest of God. Yet, the angels do warn us as we prepare for the coming of the Lord saying, “Hurt not the oil and the wine”, which is the doctrine of the holy law and testimony of Christ and the joy of serving God. This is why the devil planted his evil seed in the garden. This was done in an attempt to spoil the first fruits of the harvest by planting seeds that he knew would not be acceptable to God (Matt 13 v25; v38-39).

The devil had a second plan. He would manipulate his seed into the leadership of the wave sheaf group, and by the spirit of fear and intimidation, try to teach them against the law and testimony of God, which would make the whole harvest unacceptable (Rev 12 v15). The dragon, being worried concerning the hour in the “Book of Times”, will ignite his tares in an all out assault concerning the testimony of Christ. He will through his tares and their false prophets (whom themselves have drunk the muddy flood waters cast out of the serpents mouth being deflected to them by the wisdom of God, as in Rev 12 v15) announce lying visions and demonic orations to confuse the saints as to the will of God. As Christ commanded us to love your neighbor, your family, your children, your parents, and the stranger that is within thy gates (Matt 7 v12; Matt 5 v43-48), they will tell you to withdraw, have nothing to do with any of that!

Dear saints, please take no man’s word over the Lord’s word. Have no respect of person! This is your salvation and deliverance we are talking about here! Christ did say, “My sheep shall hear my voice.” (St. John 10 v4; St John 18 v37)! Please remember that the tares we speak of here, called “ancient men”, are in leadership positions, and stand before the church as the scripture has said in Ezekiel 9 v4-6. They have drunk the muddy floodwaters of Rev12 v15. They have become the victims of the deceiving fowls of Rev 18 v2, Matt 13 v4, and Isaiah 34 v11. Through them, the devil has placed the “spirit of controversy” in the church as in Isaiah 34 v8 in hope of turning around the doctrine and hope of the saints of the Wave-Sheaf Group.

Finally, please remember that the war of Rev 12 v17 will not be fought against forces from outside the church, but from within. Just look at what is happening in your life. Look at how the worship of God has been turned from a joy, to a thing of fear and uncertainty. This is because of the spirit of controversy from the dragon. It is within that the tares are attempting to divert your obedience from the testimony of Christ to the dragon kingdom. Yet, we have assurance from our God that this fruitless attempt shall fail (Rev 12 v11).

Final Summation: Thus said the Lord

Unto you, old ancient men (who have become so cruel and merciless in judgment):

“Thou hast been judged and found wanting. Thou hast placed thyself as lords over the congregation of God and hast not feared his name or his vengeance. Thou hast judged the mistakes and falls of others with great cruelty while ignoring the same with thyself and thy own. Thy heart has been over run with pride and thou did seek and accept the adoration and reverence which belongs only to God. Because thy belief has been long gone, thou did not fear what thou said and did in, and to the Lord’s church. Thou hast stolen what belongs to the Lord and thought there would be no retribution. Thou sought to slay the children of God and denied them space to repent. Thou sent out innocent young children - anointed unto me - into a world filled with wickedness without mercy and thought of consideration, for thou cared not. Thou hast stood at my altar and lied in my name unto my people. Thou hast taken my offering unto thyself and feared not. Hear now my words, for I will soon visit thee and remove thee from my congregation, and all shall know that I am the Lord of Host who judges all without respect of person.”

The Analogy of Prophecy

Dear friend, I find an amazing contrast between the deliverance of old, done by the full throne of God during the period of Moses, in comparison to this, your experience. Please examine it with me, for it truly is your own experience. First, old pharaoh became paranoid from the curses all around him signaling him to let God's people go (Exodus 14 v4-10). Now there went forth a cry out to the Lord (verse 10) because of the evil host pursuing Israel to stop its deliverance. This too is the experience of the wave sheaf, with the evil host of spirit forces attempting to stop their deliverance (Joel 2 v32 and Ezekiel 9 v4-6). As we continue, the Lord used water to stop the evil host of pharaoh (Exodus 14 v23-27) and again water was used to turn the tide against the Dragon's seed, seen in Rev 12 v15-16. The Wisdom of God deflected the attack of the flood from the saints to the tares the same way the Lord stood in the pillar of fire between pharaoh's army and Israel. In addition, as the Egyptians drowned in the sea, so were the tares drowned in the spiritual waters of the dragon. They emerged from these waters fully matured in evil and merciless in their judgments toward the saints, as every decision they make reflect war against the law and testimony of Jesus.

Your fellow servant and brother in Christ and Wisdom,

P.S. Soon the dragon shall realize his loss; and becomes filled with rage against his own seed (that have failed him in this effort to stop the deliverance). He shall reveal to them that they are his, beginning his own torment of them as with Judas during the life of Christ on earth. At the same time God shall also make it known unto them they are not, and never were His. They will beg God and claim that they have prophesied in his name, cast out devils and did many wonderful things; yet, He will only say unto them, "I never knew you." They will become enraged with crazy, psychotic-type madness, and anger. It is here that they will blame James T. Webb for their loss, for accepting them into the leadership of the church. They will be foaming with anger until the eagle angels finish God's will towards them as in Ezekiel 9 v4-6.

Dear friend, this is the truth of the matter and not one word shall fail unto all be fulfilled. Blessed is he that is not offended in these sayings. Amen!
