

CHAPTER III

THE CLOSING OF THE SEALED BOOK

First, let us notice the declaration on the closing and sealing of the book (Daniel 12:7 and 9 [see appendix]). Notice verse 9 with verse 7. As soon as we come to the time of the end, another declaration is made by the same angel opening all of the mysteries of God, which was sealed to the Prophet Daniel. In Revelation 10:1-11, the little book you see in the hands of the angel is the fullness of the mysteries of God, which were hidden from the Prophet Daniel (Revelation 10:1-11 [see appendix]).

Seven thunders will mark the end of the mysteries of God as contained in the little book and as divine prophecy fulfills before us, there will be nothing more in the drama of life beyond the seven thunders; for it will announce the fulfillment of all things in this life of the mysteries of God. This will be done under the sounding of the seventh trumpet (verse 7). Now let us notice what the seven thunders uttered in comparison with verse 4. At this point, we have entered into eternity of the earth made new: Christ's kingdom of glory forever will he reign.
