

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Who may nominate a candidate?

A. Anyone may nominate a worthy candidate that they believe meets the minimum criteria and has significant achievements and/or contributions in the sport of military rodeo.

Q. What do I do with all my pictures and news articles I have?

A. Send copies of them to our Historian at militaryrodeohistory@gmail.com

Q. Can those items and others be used for nomination purposes?

A. Certainly, in fact they will be used as supporting evidence and reviewed by the selection committee; however they will not replace the actual nomination form.

Q. How do I make a nomination?

A. Download the Nominating Form. Complete it, save it and submit it along with any supporting information to militaryrodeohistory@gmail.com

Q. When is the form due?

A. Nomination packages are accepted any time prior to June 1st of each year.

Q. What happens next?

A. Nominations are reviewed by the designee of the Board of Directors to ensure a nomination is complete, accurate and contains information showing that the nominee meets the minimum qualifications of having been a member of the United States Armed Forces as active duty, retired, active/inactive reserve or Guard component or dependent of these units and competed in military rodeos verified and approved by the Board of Directors. Stock Contractors, Contract Acts, Rodeo Committees, Rodeo Promoters, and other Notables may not have to meet these requirements; however, they must have made significant contributions to military rodeos to be considered. Members of the Armed Forces with less than an Honorable discharge are ineligible for consideration. Verification of service by inductees shall be completed prior to induction.

Q. When will the induction take place?

A. The date and location for the Induction Ceremony will be announced at the completion of each nomination cycle.

Q. Is the Induction Ceremony open to the public?

A. Yes of course. And family and friends are encouraged to attend this historic event in support of the Honoree and military rodeo.
