

LEADERSHIP CAMPBELL

2020 SESSION

Leadership Campbell is a community leadership education program for people who live or work in Campbell, provided through a partnership with the City of Campbell and the Campbell Chamber Community Foundation.

Speakers and class participants will be local leaders and experts from both the public and private sectors who contribute to the betterment of the Campbell community.

In group discussions, with guest panelists, and through site visits, Leadership Campbell will address the following key questions:

- Who are the people who make Campbell what is it today?
- How does our City Government work?
- What are the important issues facing the different sectors in our community (education, healthcare, infrastructure, public safety)?
- How can citizens make a difference and contribute to our community?
