CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

How many times have you regretted missing out on something important?

Minneapolis miracle. Walking the stage at graduation. Season finales. A weekend at the cabin.

And you'll be kicking yourself for missing out on vital information and career opportunities if you don't renew your Minnesota Society of CPAs membership.

Oops, I thought I renewed

Here's what members will be enjoying:

- Free CPE. More than 15 hours of free CPE available this year. That savings alone more than covers the cost of membership.
- Certificate protection. What you don't know puts your certificate at risk. Members receive alerts, rule changes and reminders before potentially becoming out of compliance.
- Building valuable skills. Don't let opportunities to enhance your reputation and build career skills pass you by. Share your knowledge by talking to students, completing military tax returns, volunteering for Taxline, writing Footnote articles and participating at Small Business Advisory Day.

- Access to professional peers. The saying "it's who you know" still holds true. Knowing the right people can have a resoundingly positive impact on your career. Grow your network of impactful peers through Connect, new Special Interest Sections, committees, task forces, networking events and the MNCPA's inaugural golf outing Aug. 28.
- Tracking CPE with compliance alerts. With the new BOA rule changes, the types of credits and how many of each you need can be tricky. Track your CPE, and see compliance alerts in one location with the CPE Log. When it's time to report to the BOA, the CPE Log is a mirror image of the BOA form, simplifying the process.

Don't be the last to hear about career affecting news and miss out on all the opportunities your CPA peers are taking advantage of as MNCPA members. Renew today.
