Experience. Intelligence. Empathy.

Servius Group LLC (“Servius”) was established in order to address the increasingly complex requirements of leaders in their respective fields—and their families—in regard to support and protection. This need is underwritten by increases in global wealth and business connections, as well as prevailing trends in international corporate and high-end recreational travel. In an uncertain world, acts of terrorism and specific threats aimed toward Ultra High Net Worth (UHNW) individuals continue to evolve and demand a unique response.

Formation

Servius is the result of the confluence of high-level experiences in the civilian and Special Operations worlds. As global stewards, we have been formerly tasked with deep, personal missions on behalf of our country, as well as individuals and families seeking safe passage and opportunities to enhance their own livelihoods. Servius represents the physical manifestation of our collective experience into an unprecedented entity set on providing the highest level of service to those who wish to ensure the quality of their mission regardless of capacity or scope.
