APRIL 2024

FROM OUR PRESIDENT

The azaleas are in full flower and the roses are just about to bloom. That can only signal one thing—the return of Waterway’s Annual Spring Show and Sale! With so many new members, this year’s show is bound to be especially exciting. And, THANK YOU to everyone who has volunteered to make this year’s show another success.

Janice Castiglione’s portrait class, last month, was very inspiring. Participants were not only treated to great instruction, but to several bonus tidbits including a pre-painting loosen-up exercise, proportional scale usage, and watercolor journaling techniques.

This month we look forward to leading pastel artist, Beth Olsen’s “Introduction to Soft Pastels”. Her award-winning work is a marvel to behold. If you have ever considered trying pastels, this 3-hour class is your chance to learn from one of the best.

Put those finishing touches on your show pieces, select the perfect frame, and assemble your bin art. The 33rd Annual Waterway Art Show and Sale is about to get underway. Looking forward to seeing you at the Gallery.

Diane White has started a plein air painting group at Vereen Gardens on Thursday mornings, weather permitting (however, she and other diehard painters have been known to paint in the rain). You can arrive when you want but Diane tries to get there between 8:30 and 9 AM. We will be down by the waterfront. Come join us! Diane’s email is diane.white257@gmail.com, (or text to 412-965-1952).
