

Thank you for taking the time to read the Bylaws of Eternal Pizza Party Production Incorporation. Eternal Pizza Party Productions Inc. bylaws apply to any and all projects produced by E3PI and are mandatory for participation, thus Eternal Pizza Party Productions Incorporated reserves the right to exclude anyone who does not follow or submit to the bylaws. Please read them over carefully and return the signature page to this event's logistics staff.

1. Eternal Pizza Party Productions Inc. is, first and foremost, a force dedicated to helping others. While the entertainment of participating patrons is prominent in our projects and productions, charity will always come first.

*Please consider also reading the rules of an event's location, as it is in compliance with the Eternal Pizza Party Production Inc. policies.

2. The Eternal Pizza Party Production Incorporation will honor and obey all federal and state laws, as well as the rules and regulations of our venue(s)*. Eternal Pizza Party Production Inc. reserves the right to exclude or evacuate any patron or volunteer in violation thereof.

3. Eternal Pizza Party Production Inc. cares about your safety. Participants will be made aware of risks taken in performance and athletic play-style combat as well as the possibility of injuries sustained during an event. Patrons and volunteers should take proper caution and responsibility to avoid injury.

All and any injuries sustained while attending an Eternal Pizza Party Production Inc. project or production must be reported to the responsible trustee or an incorporator, immediately.

4. Eternal Pizza Party Productions Inc. will NOT stand for discrimination, including but not limited to: creed, race, wellness, physical ability, political stance, gender, sexuality, class, etc. E3PI reserves the right to exclude anyone who discriminates on any level from any projects. E3PI Inc. also reserves judgement on what is considered discriminatory.

The Eternal Pizza Party Production Incorporation reserves the right to exclude any person or persons who

a) provides or endorses inappropriate behavior

b) provides or endorses unsafe behavior

c) slanders this organization, or any of its sponsors, donors, or affiliates.

E3PI reserves judgement on what is considered unsafe or inappropriate.

5. No participant of any Eternal Pizza Party Productions Inc. project or production under the age of 18 may engage in physical contact or combat without express parental permission. No participating patron of any E3P Inc. project or production under the age of 14 may engage in physical contact or combat without express parental permission as well as mandatory parental presence. E3P Inc. reserves the right to exclude any minor or minors from any project or production that E3P Inc. deems inappropriate for their age or maturity level.

6. Any participant that quits or is removed from a project or production for any reason relinquishes any rewards or refunds for that project or production.

7. Any participating patron that does not follow the rules of a project or production's event may be escorted from the event by a trustee or incorporating officer and asked not to return to that or any E3P Inc. projects or productions by proxy.

Immersion is very important to any Eternal Pizza Party Production Inc. experience. Every participating patron must wear clothes, use props, and behave in an immersive manner to participate in a project or production. If proper immersive behaviors are not shown, then the patron will be asked to adjust their behavior or leave the project or production. E3P Inc. reserves the right to decide what is immersive regarding a project or production.

8. All patrons must fill out all necessary registration forms to participate in any Eternal Pizza Party Production Inc. projects or productions.

TL:DR

- This is a charity where you can raise money for various causes simply by enjoying yourself. It's rad.
- Misconduct will not be tolerated.
- Be kind and courteous to each other.
- Play your part and enjoy yourself.
- Be careful. Try not to actually injure yourself or anyone else.
- Please don't ruin these experiences, as they are ultimately for good.
