Cannot Marry in the Catholic Church Due to A Prior Marriage?

Pope Francis streamlined the process to petition for a declaration of nullity to make the process shorter. He also eliminated the mandatory fee. If a person is able to prove in this process that their prior martial bond was invalid for some reason, that he or she can marry in the Catholic Church or validate a current civil marriage. For assistance in petitioning, you can contact Sharen Chaves, Ruth Statler or Jim and Jan Manion at 8089658202. They will assist you as advocates.

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoā, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure.

Sunday Connection

Luke 19:1-10

Jesus stays at the house of Zacchaeus, the tax collector.

In Jesus' day, tax collectors were not popular people. They were collaborators with the Romans and were despised by many Jewish people. The tax system allowed them to charge more than what was required so that they could make a profit for themselves. Thus, they were considered sinners by their countrymen. Observers in the crowd that day grumble because Jesus dines with a sinner. Throughout Scripture, Jesus' choice of dinner companions set him apart from other observant Jews of his time. In first century Jewish culture, to dine together was to show a bond of fellowship and peace among those at the table. Observant Jews did not generally dine with foreigners and sinners. Yet, Jesus chooses to honor the tax collector, Zacchaeus, by staying at his house.

Even before Jesus comes to his home, Zacchaeus shows himself to be someone in search of salvation. Zacchaeus, described as short in stature, climbs a tree in order to see Jesus. We know from Luke's description that Zacchaeus was no ordinary tax collector; he was, in fact, the chief tax collector and a person of some wealth. In his search for salvation, he humbled himself by making a spectacle of himself by climbing a tree.

Jesus recognizes the faith of this tax collector exhibited in his search for salvation and calls him down from the tree. In the hospitality he extends to Jesus and in his conversion of heart, Zacchaeus is raised up by Jesus as a model of salvation.

. For adult instruction (RCIA), ages 18 and over Bill Cesaletti will be your instructor. If you have questions and need further explanations, speak to Sharen Chaves.

PRAYER FOR ELECTIONS

Loving God, as our civic elections approach, fill us with the light of your Holy Spirit and the wisdom and courage to be faithful citizens. Guide us with your Spirit to exercise our responsibility to vote, but to first study the candidates and issues according to your will. Let us vote for people and policies that will affirm life in all its stages, from conception to natural death; that will strengthen marriage and the family according to your will; that will make us more attentive to the needs of the homeless and the vulnerable; and that will lead us to be "one nation, under God." We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
[Approved by Most Reverend Larry Silva, Bishop of Honolulu; October 27, 2022.]

The Our Lady of Sorrows of Pahoa (on the cover)

The Our Lady of Sorrows statue was commissioned from China by Jonathan Perreira, son of Isabelle and John Perreira. It was originally ordered to have the resemblance of St Marianne Cope, which obviously the statue does not have. It was then by public acclamation that the statue became that of Our Lady of Sorrows.

The statue was originally destined to be displayed either at St Joseph Church or at St Joseph School in Hilo. It appears that the leaders of the two said destinations did not deem their places suitable for the devotion to the Lady of Sorrows. The 8-foot-tall solid white marble statue remained packed at St Joseph School storage shed since 2012.

Only then, the Perreira Family thought of offering the statue to the Sacred Heart Church Pahoa graveyard “to honor” the outstanding parish services of Isabelle Andrade Perreira and Remigio Salazar.

The definite transfer of the statue to Pahoa church graveyard did not materialize for 10 years and for many reasons. The renewed insistent desire of transporting the statue to Pahoa church complex was solicited by Mike Tavares, grandson of the Perreira couple, through the long-time Sacred Heart parishioner, George Salazar.

In 2018, the St Joseph School principal, Dr Llewellyn Young indicated to the then newly assigned Administrator of Pahoa Parish that the statue had to be finally transported to the church complex. The effects of the pandemics prolonged the processes of the actual transfer. Meanwhile, for unknown reasons, the statue was now to be found at St. Theresa’s Church – Mountain View and there it could still be seen in its original wooden casing.

At the beginning of this year 2022, there have been prolonged phone calls and continuous insistence of the grandson of the Perreira couple with Sharen Chaves who was requested by the Parish Administrator to deal with the transfer of the statue. Finally, the pastor of St Theresa’s – Mountain View gave a strong suggestion that in September 2022 the transporting of the statue had to be accomplished.

With the coordination programmed by Mr. Jim Manion, the present chairperson of the Sacred Heart – Pahoa Parish Building, Planning and Maintenance, and the generosity of Roberta and Allen Mendes of St Theresa’s Church – Mountain View, the statue was brought from St Theresa’s Church to the graveyard of Sacred Heart Church on Wednesday, October 5, 2022 at 11:11 in the morning. With the help of four volunteers at Sacred Heart Church, the temporary platform upon which the statue stands secure was done. A more stable base is planned to be constructed in a later time.

The statue of Our Lady of Sorrows can now be seen and admired at her post near the 11th and 12th Stations of the Parish “Way of the Cross” Meditation Trail, “in her absolutely stunning posture of humility and supplication,” praying for us and with us. The once “homeless” statue has at last found shelter on the grounds of Sacred Heart Church – Pahoa and hopefully, in the hearts of all.
