

Who We Were and Who We Are:

1937 – The Village at Murphy's Crossing was part of the Delaware County Fair Grounds site.

1938 – This site became a horse-racing track.

In the 1940's the site became an auto and motorcycle racing track. The car racing ended in the 1960's; however, the Murphy's Party Barn continued to provide many fond memories for people in the Columbus, Ohio area.

2000 – Powell became a city.

2002 – Development of The Village at Murphy's Crossing began.

2012 – The 52 condominiums, clubhouse, and pool were complete.
