

Valentines & Treats for our Military

This mission project gets bigger and bigger each year. You can help by collecting cards from schools, local churches and front porch pick-ups from individual homes (Contact Catherine Sas-Shaljian for more info). We will also meet Sunday February 4th after church- come be part of an assembly line to sort & pack the donations and help stuff Valentine bags. Special requests for a Veteran or military member are welcome. We can send a single Valentine or a box for the entire unit. Just supply their name and full address.

All Valentines and treats are due to LMC by

Saturday, February 18th at 6:30pm

Ask anyone who's attended before, this is such a fun night! Take a break from your everyday and play a little! You will be greeted with lighthearted fun, friendly chat, and fresh hot pizza.

Monopoly and Checkers were ok, but there are SOOO many other games out there! Some take planning or problem-solving skills, some test your trivia knowledge or your ability to guess, some just take luck and giggles! Come try something new- I'd bet we have something you'll love.

Thank you to Ed & Heidi Magenheimer for dropping off our donations! Ed & Heidi informed us that all donations for LunchBreak are now being accepted at their mission location, 121 Drs James Parker Boulevard, Red Bank NJ 07701. The other locations for drop off have been closed. LunchBreak appreciates everything we do and is always happy to see us.

Online Giving

Tired of writing checks each week?

A one-time or recurring donation can be set up electronically by following this QR code. You simply enter the donation amount, frequency, and start date. A secure transaction will then be initiated with your bank information. Giving via text is also an option. Just text 833-557-0543 with the amount you wish to donate. You will receive a registration link where you can enter your contact and payment information. You will receive a verification text and receipt via email. Once you set it up you can donate again by simply sending a text with the amount you want to give and it will process automatically.

Already signed up? Make sure to check your account occasionally- if your credit card changes or expires you won't get a notification.

NEW- We now have a credit card reader available if you would prefer to make your transaction in person.

By the Way If everyone gives just $5-$10 more each week, we will be able to balance our budget this year
