Troop 75 will be attending a week of summer camp at WSR in Rockaway, NJ. Scouts will be sleeping in two-person platform tents on cots (provided). All meals will be served in a communal dining hall. Dinner on Tuesday night will be cooked by the Troop at the campsite with a Dutch Oven Dessert Competition. Special dietary or religious meal needs can be accommodated by the parent calling the Camp Dining Hall Manager directly at 973-983-9075 at least 2 wks in advance.

New Scouts: will participate in the Dan Beard Program focused on introductory Scouting skills where scout will have the opportunity to complete a lot of rank requirements (recommended)

Current Scouts: will focus their time on earning Merit Badges and can also work on rank advancements. Check the merit badge schedule for age/rank requirements and Pre-Requisites. Use the Merit Badge Planning Form to plan your week.

Trail to Eagle: (separate registration directly with council required) is available for Star and Life Scouts at least 13 years or older. Program attendees do not camp with Troop 75.

FUN, FUN, FUN!!! There will also be plenty of free time for activities such as mountain biking, hiking, swimming, paddle boats, sailboards, stand up paddle boards, crafts, rifle, shotgun, archery, paintball, batting cages, and a wide variety of other sports. Experience the 1000 foot zip line and the Monster Waterslide and Trampoline. And let's not forget the early morning or late evening fishing excursions on Miss Winnie and sunrise "Polar Bear, Polar Bear".

Save the Date: Monday, June 17, 2019, at 7:30 p.m. in Rand Hall
