

Lester Sanders Speaker Introduction

Lester Sanders has dedicated his life to helping young people from all walks of life accomplish their goals in “The Game Of Life” and be “Motivated To Live Their Dreams”!

He is a National Speaker, Communicator, and Resiliency Expert. He has a rare gift for connecting to today’s young people and a unique ability to inject information, knowledge, service, hope, love, and innovation into the culture.

Lester has been encouraging students and student-athletes as a professional speaker since incorporating his consulting business, Lester Sanders Limitless, in 2004. Also, Lester is the Program Coordinator for Rising Scholars, a Kent State University at Stark campus college access and readiness program.

Born in Canton, OH, in poverty, failing second grade, fearing rejection, battling self-doubt, and enduring the disadvantages of single parenthood, Lester knows about turning unfavorable circumstances, adversities, and tragedies into hope and fuel for goal and dream achievement.

Lester is a Canton McKinley Sr. High School and Kent State University graduate. He majored in Criminal Justice and concentrated on prevention in the Juvenile Justice System and Positive Youth Development.

Lester makes his home in Canton, OH, with his wife LaTrese and sons Elijah and Kaylen.

He speaks to thousands of teens and young adults yearly through school assemblies, conferences, workshops, student-athlete development forums, college campus events, churches, youth ministries, and more.

For more info, visit LesterSanders.com & YouTube.com/LesterSpeaks.
Please help me welcome Lester Sanders!